Contract Safety Plan Blocked

CITY, DEFIED
BY SURETIES, IS "UP TREE"

Bondsman Won't be Bound to Finish Jones Project

ACTION NECESSARY MONDAY

Commission Must Act Now or Else Reject All Bids

Attempts of the city to insert an iron clad safety clause in the liability bond of $315,000 for completion of the Jones sewer job were blocked Monday by bonding companies that the clause is too stringent and they refuse to enter into any such contract with the city.

Bonding company officials announced they are willing to write the bond for the total amount of the contract but refuse to obligate themselves for completion of the job other than meeting their financial promises.

CLAIM Clause demanded by city commission bonding companies responsible for completion of the job is prohibitive in that it practically forces the companies into the contracting game, bond salesmen announced, and gives them no recourse should a contracting company default after completing 95 percent or less of the contract.

Promise of a 100 per cent bond is a concession, according to bond officials, in that bonds for other jobs were written for only 50 per cent of the contract. They refer to the original Jones bond of $170,000 for a $340,000 contract.

First action on the Jones job must be taken Monday night in commission meeting as this is the last day allowed under the law for award of the contract or rejection of the seven bids. A muddle exists with city officials non-committal.

UP TREE
City Manager C. A. Bingham admits he doesn't know what to expect. He says the city has two choices only—award to the Haddad-Kaufman Construction Co., Cleveland, rejection of all bids.

Increased cost of material would take it unwise, according to Manager Bingham, to throw out the bids when the city again readvertised the bids would be higher than the $315,000 bid received and the city would be forced to spend more money for completion of the project.

The Haddad-Kaufman Co. has satisfied commissioners with a financial statement and has agreed to deposit $40,000 working reserve for completion of the job but a "hitch" on writing of the liability bond engages the city in a mess that Bingham believes may defeat his efforts to let the contract and result in rejection of all bids.

EX-SUITOR SOUGHT

Linked With Disappearance of Cleveland Bride

CLEVELAND—(United Press)— Police today were hunting for a former suitor of Mrs. Eleanor Sawyer, 17, in the city of a month, who has been missing from her home since last Monday. Police think he may be able to help find her. An unnamed note found in the missing
Sawyer room by her mother, Mrs.
Charles Sawyer, caused the search.
"Goodbye Ma, goodbye Pa. I am going to be back soon. I am going to do housework."
"I don't worry, I am leaving you in good condition. When I was away, I received the news
I had a fight, not with my husband. I used to know a fellow I promised to marry, and he told me that if I didn't leave Joe he would do something to me."

jured man was taken to the hospital

LIMA POPULATION NOW 54,976

This estimate is the result of the census taken here by R. L. Polk & Co., directory publishers, and is contained in the preface to the 1924 Lima city directory just issued. It is the twenty-second edition.

Lima was credited with a population of 41,306 by the government census but this enumeration did not take into consideration the families living just outside the city limits, the preface says. The directory takes this extra-urban population into consideration.

Fifty-six more pages are necessary in the new directory than in the 1920 edition, it is pointed out, to care for the new names. In all, 800 pages are required to tell of Lima people. Complete information regarding the city and county government, financial institutions, churches, lodges, manufacturing plants, business houses, public and private institutions, newspapers and citizens of the city are contained in the book.

Lima is the capital city of Allen-co, the junction of five important lines of steam transportation and five interurban lines. It is the seat of the Lima state hospital for the criminal insane and is the home of the Lima Locomotive Works, the Deisel-Wemmer Co. and takes a big place in the manufacture of motor trucks.

Besides being distributed thruout the city the directory is placed in directory libraries in every principal city in the United States.

DONAHEY WARNS CITIES

CONGRESSMAN IS BEHIND BARS

Serious Charge Filed Against Representative Knutson

WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—A man arrested late Sunday night on the outskirts of Washington was identified in police court at Arlington, Va., Monday as Representative Harold Knutson of Minnesota, and was held without bail on a serious charge.

Leroy M. Hull, 29, describing himself as a war department clerk, was arrested with him and also is in the Arlington jail.

The Virginia highway police, who made the arrests, said they found the two in a parked automobile. When arraigned in court they asked that they be permitted to employ counsel before pleading to the charge against them and the case was continued until Tuesday.

Meanwhile they are locked in a cell with thirty other prisoners charged with a miscellany of crimes. The district attorney said bail might be taken shortly but he would ask a bond of at least $5,000 he required of each.

Knutson is serving his fourth term in the house. Last session he served as Republican whip, and he is the present chairman of the pensions committee. He is about forty years old.

WOMAN KILLED BY STOVE FUMES

Police Find Dead Body After Breaking Down Doors

Lifeless body of Mrs. Emma C.
Resler, 67, of 424 N. McDonnell-st., was found lying against the kitchen door of her home Sunday at 7 p.
m. when Police Sergeant Alexander Edwards investigated, a report that the woman had not been seen since Saturday. She had been asphyxiated by fumes from a gas stove.

Mrs. Resler's brother, Watson Rockey, of 524 E. Market-st., called at the house early Sunday afternoon finding the door locked, thought she was visiting neighbors and left. In the meantime, neighbors had noticed papers had not been removed from the porch and at night when a light did not appear, they became alarmed and notified the brother and police. Mrs. Resler lived alone in the house.

Sergeant Edwards answered the call and breaking in the door, found the lifeless body of the woman lying against the kitchen door, showing evidence of a desperate effort to escape the fumes. It is thought Mrs. Resler put too much coal in the stove, smothering the flames. She had been dead for several hours.

Coroner Frank Smith gave asphy-xiation by gas as the cause of death.
The body is being held at the Cantwell mortuary pending the arrival of a brother and sister from Indiana. Burial will be made in Cantwell cemetery, near Troy, Wednesday morning.

Enforce Prohibition Laws or Get Out, Is Demand of Governor to Every Municipal and County
Official In State

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Closest cooperation of mayors, sheriffs, constables and all county and city officials thruout the state in the enforcement of prohibition laws was urged in a proclamation issued Monday by Governor Donahey.

The proclamation called on all officials to render heartiest aid to the state prohibition department and contained a warning that any officer refusing properly to enforce the law will be prosecuted vigorously and removed from office.

Declaring an emergency in the prohibition department by reason of the recent removal of 110 "card" men after Attorney General Crabbe had declared they held office illegally, the proclamation cited the fact that according to the attorney general's ruling only 18 regular enforcement officers are eligible for employment, two others being used in tax collections.

The prohibition department hereafter will act as a cooperative and advisory body to local officers in the enforcement of liquor laws, according to the proclamation.

Governor Donahey also called attention to the duty of private citizens in reporting violations.

Following is the text of the proclamation:

"The attorney general of Ohio, as the advisor of the governor, has rendered an official opinion to the effect that the state prohibition department in its employment of enforcement officers must restrict itself to the limited appropriation made by the general assembly for that purpose.

"In compliance with this opinion of the attorney general, 110 emergency inspectors, known as 'card' men, paid from local sources, but working under the authority of the state department—a practice instituted several years ago—have been discharged and their powers revoked.

"The appropriation by the general assembly is sufficient only to employ 20 regular prohibition inspectors, two of whom must devote their time to Dow-Aiken tax collections, as required by law, leaving only 18 active field men available for the entire state. They will be able to make comparatively few arrests in the 100 cities, 700 villages and 88 counties of Ohio.

MUST ENFORCE LAW
"It being my sworn duty to require enforcement of the law, however handicapped, it becomes necessary in this emergency to ask for more vigorous and concentrated effort in prohibition enforcement on the part of local officials, mayors, sheriffs, state prosecutors and police officers in all subdivisions of the state.

"I have this day instructed the state prohibition commissioner to have his department devote itself largely to cooperating with and assisting these local officials to obtain honest and effective prohibition enforcement in their respective communities.

"On the other hand, the state department will expect the fullest cooperation from local authorities and where public officials will not give such wholehearted assistance, whether it be in the largest city or smallest village, state inspectors will report the fact to the state prohibition commissioners.

"It is after personal investigation of the commissioner finds such charges warrant further action, it will be his duty to file them with the governor and recommend removal proceedings.

CALLS ON OFFICIALS
"Now, therefore, I, Vic Donahey, governor of Ohio, by virtue of authority and responsibility vested in me by the laws of the state, do enjoin,

Allen-co is listed in prospective lettings of contracts for Ohio road construction, the second of the year, announced by L. A. Boulay, state highway director, for March 14, in 16 counties, affecting 25 projects, to cost approximately $1,500,000.

Section E of the Lima-Bellefontaine-rd, 3.365 miles, is to be offered. Engineers' estimate is $112-340.07 for asphalt, and $149,751.12 for brick.

Other proposed contracts in this territory include .971 mile of the Piqua-St. Marys-rd in Auglaize-co reinforced concrete, estimated at $27,259.48, and 6.403 miles of the Fort Recovery-Minster-rd in Mercer-co, concrete, estimated at $171-710.08.

All contracts to be let this week are for immediate operations in construction work. It is announced.
As soon as bids are tabulated and contracts awarded on the second letting of the year, engineers will start preparations for a third letting, in which will appear other projects in this territory. It is announced.

CONTROLLED MEXICAN WAR FUND, BORDER MAN SAYSTEACHER FORFEITS HER LIFE GUARDING PUPILS

CLEVELAND—The body of Miss Grace Nourse, school teacher, who forfeited her life guarding her pupils, will be taken to Washington today for burial from the home of her mother.

Miss Nourse died last night from heart disease caused when a sled on which she was riding crashed into a tree two weeks ago when she took some of her pupils coasting.

Miss Nourse, who was 41, often accompanied her first grade pupils because, as she explained to other teachers, "they might get hurt."

BROKER SLAIN BY SALESMAN

Killing of Former Employer at Louisville Confessed

TROUBLE ARISES OVER WIFE

Held Prisoner for Operation, Slayer Declares

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—(Associated Press)—Police had before them today the confession of William Gates, 31, a salesman, who shot and killed his erstwhile friend and former employer, Richard Heaton, 33, a member of the merchandise brokerage firm of Heaton and Fisher, after Heaton had kept him a prisoner for two days in a room while he methodically prepared to perform an operation.

Frank Cordell, a private detective of Indianapolis, was under arrest in that city, charged with kidnapping Gates. He is to be returned to Louisville whence he fled Thursday night after having aided Heaton, the police say, in securing Gates under surveillance the day Gates was kidnapped.
Heaton was in the house which apparently was rented by Heaton with the view of murdering Gates.

Three other persons have been questioned and two of them released.
Heyde Conrad, a theatre organist and friend of Heaton, who spent the night in the house Thursday was held on a conspiracy charge. W. A. Fisher, Heaton's partner, said he had stood guard over Gates, who was tied to a bed with a sheet covering him while Heaton went to his own home to see his wife, over whom, police say, the trouble arose.

PARTNER MISSING
Fisher has not been seen since he was released. Mrs. Moore, a Chicago detective, quit her assignment of keeping Mrs. Heaton under surveillance the day Gates was kidnapped.
She said she saw nothing questionable in the woman's actions.

Gates told the police that he was seized Thursday night in Heaton's office. His captors took one pistol from him but overlooked an old fashioned .41 calibre Deringer he had in a vest pocket. He, too, had forgotten it in the excitement but that night when Heaton was preparing to operate upon him, he discovered it. Saturday night as Heaton was about to handcuff him to a bed after having taken him to a bathroom he drew the pistol and as his captor attempted to obtain a pistol, shot him to death.

Mrs. Heaton was on the first floor when the shooting occurred. She had just arrived and had been admitted by her husband who went upstairs. The shooting occurred soon thereafter.

A physician, attracted by the shots, went into the house and found Heaton dead. Gates left, but yesterday was found at the home of relatives at Anchorage, a suburb. He was questioned as to the important phases of the case but because of his condition was not pressed too closely.

Insane jealousy over his wife was the reason attributed by the police for the kidnapping and attempted operation.

$1,000,000 Raised to Back Revolution, Daugherty Probers Told

INFORMER IS SUMMONED

Will be Quizzed as to Alleged Gun Running

WASHINGTON—(United Press)—Evidence directly involving former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall and some present government officials in a $1,000,000 bribery and a gun running plot will be sought by the senate Daugherty investigating committee from a witness subpoenaed today.

He is Harry S. Obbon, former mayor of Calexico, Calif., a town on the border between California and Mexico. Obbon wrote a letter to Senator LaFollette, Wisconsin, detailing of alleged instances of interference from Washington with efforts to stop gun running across the border during the Cantu revolution in 1921. He also told of a $1,000,000 fund, part of which was to go to Estaban Cantu, leader of the revolution and which according to Obbon, Fall had control of.

LaFollette turned the letter over to Senator Wheeler who at once summoned Obbon.

RECORDS MISSING
WASHINGTON—(United Press)— Records relating to evidence in the naval oil scandal were reported today to have been taken from the office of a senator.

One of the witnesses scheduled to testify before the investigating committee this week, will be asked if he knows anything about the disappearance.

The papers are supposed to have disappeared just before the investigation got under way four months ago. The committee has no direct evidence that they were stolen but their disappearance has roused strong suspicions.

For months, one of the leading investigators has unsuccessfully attempted to trace them. Their disappearance at first hindered the investigation but now they are not needed.

DIG INTO MESSAGES
WASHINGTON—(Associated Press)—The new work of the oil inquiry found the senate investigating committee still digging into the pile of telegrams it has subpoenaed but planning soon to branch new supplies of evidence. These include the findings of auditors assigned to study the books of brokerage firms to determine the extent of dealings by officials in oil stocks before and after the leasing of the naval reserves and the reports that the oil interests sought to influence the Republican presidential nomination in 1920.

In addition the new work marks the initiation of court proceedings growing out of the inquiry—a preliminary hearing Thursday in the federal district court at Cheyenne, Wyo., on an application by the government's special counsel for a temporary injunction to restrain the Mammoth Oil Co. from further extraction of oil in the Teapot oil reserve. This company was formed by Harry F. Sinclair to take over the lease negotiated with him by Albert B. Fall as secretary of the interior and signed by Edwin Denby as secretary of the navy.

Like action is to follow in southern California against the Pacific American Petroleum Co., for which E. L. Doheny obtained the lease on naval reserve number one in that state.

SPECIAL COUNSEL
The oil committee also has before it the nomination of Samuel Knight of San Francisco to act as special counsel for the government in proceedings to recover two sections of the Elk Hills reserve which are being operated by the Standard Oil Co. of California, having been granted to that state as non-mineral school lands upon its admission to statehood.

Knight's nomination was considered by the committee last week but no action was taken. Some objection to his appointment has been raised because of employment as counsel in California by the Equitable Trust Company of New York which has been described as a "Rockefeller bank."

The public hearings will not be resumed until tomorrow but the committee's orders to telegraph company officials here and at Palm Beach, New Orleans and Three Rivers, New Mexico, Fall's home, or producing a steady stream of telegrams sent to or by Edward B. McLean, Fall, Sinclair, Doheny, H. F. Blackmer of the Midwest Refining Company, Robert Stewart of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and J. W. Zevilly, counsel for Sinclair.

JURY AGAIN TAKES UP VICE QUIZ

County's Probe of Rum Running and Gambling Resumed

BUCKETSHOP FACTS ASKED

Dow Tax Looms As Threat in Fight on Bootlegging

Investigation of vice, liquor running, and gambling on margins will be taken up by the Allegheny grand jury at its regular January session, which that body retired behind closed doors for recess.

Members of the vice squad of the Lima police department are numbered among the witnesses who were called to testify Monday. They will likely testify on the night of the trial, which is being held in the city.

RESUME RUM QUIZ

Probe into the activities of rum running and bootlegging in the city which was touched on by the jury at its regular January session, will be resumed, it was announced.

At the January session, owners of Lima real estate, where it is known whisky was sold, were called in and warned.

It was indicated Monday that the jury will make a check up on the places, and find out how the law has been obeyed. The jury may recommend enforcement of the law on properties where recent violations have occurred.

Investigation of bucketshops and gambling on margins ordered by Judge Becker in January will be renewed.

NEW INFORMATION
The jury, it was discovered, took up the bucketshop probe, but adjourned for lunching its investigations. Fresh information concerning stock gambling will be heard before the jury Monday by investigators.

Prosecuting Attorney Eugene T. Lippincott, in direct charge of the presentation of evidence before the jury.

A partial list of witnesses called to testify Monday follows:

Dan Burden, Frank Kilian, county humane officer, Norman O'Brien, laborer; Mike Langhlin, police officer; Jerry Aye, hotel man; Frank Karpis, A. F. Williams, Joe Mullin, Willis Kipper, police inspector; R. J. Behn, Mel Stevenson, C. M. Toland, Sam Miller, John Schlesinger, T. Spence, Ed Moore, A. V. Ward, Fremont Johnson, A. C. Edwards, B. F. Godfrey, William Evers, Mrs. Otis Lamb.

ACTORS ARE PREPARING FOR STRIKE JUNE 1

NEW YORK—An actor's strike on June 1, has become more probable as a result of the endorsement of demands for a closed shop by the Actors Equity Association which is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

"We must now prepare for battle," said John Emerson, president of the Equity at a mass meeting yesterday. "Any new offer must come from the managers. The dissenting group in the Producing Managers' Association has said that rather than agree to an equity shop they will declare a lockout and from this position they must recede."

The meeting with two dissenters out of 1,200 actors and actresses present, passed a resolution declaring that after June 1, no member of Equity would play in any case unless all the players were Equity members.

DUPLICATE AUTO TAGS IN LIMA. STATEMENT REVEALS

Secretary of State Thad H. Brown today made public the numbers of the automobile license tags that have been duplicated at the Ohio penitentiary. Tag number 531,700 came to Lima, he believes.

OHIO SOLONS MAY BE CALLED

Action As to Convening Legislature Expected Soon

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—J. F. Cross, clerk of the Ohio senate, today said that definite action by the reconvening committee appointed by the general assembly last April when it recessed, with a view to calling a possible special session of that body, is expected within a day or two.

Senators throughout the state have been strong within the last 48 hours that we can disregard it no longer," Cross said. "Pleas from different interests in 62 of the 88 counties in the state have been made to the reconvening committee."

Cross said it would take the vote of at least three members of the committee to bring the legislature back into session. The committee is composed of Captain J. P. Maynard, clerk of the house; Representative Robert C. Dunn, of Bowling Green, speaker pro tem of the house; Representative Harry D. Silver of Eaton, chairman of the house finance committee; Senator George E. Krivder of McClure, president pro tem of the senate; Senator J. F. Atwood, chairman of the senate finance committee, and Mr. Cross.

SPEECH CAUSES ULSTER OFFICIAL'S SUSPENSION

BELFAST—The Ulster constabulary authorities have suspended District Inspector Nixon for speeches he made at Orange meetings, regarding Free State preparations on the border.

On Jan. 30, at a meeting of the Orange lodge in Belfast, Nixon declared that the border between the Free State and six counties was surrounded by Free State artillery, armored cars and airplanes.

The next day Gen. Mulcahy issued a statement that the Free State authorities had no artillery or airplanes nearer the border than Dublin, and no armored car nearer than Donegal or Mullingar, adding "Don't mind Nixon; he must have something on his conscience."

AMERICA HELPS 286,000 FRENCH WAR ORPHANS

PARIS—Americans have aided 286,000 French war orphans during the nine years work of the Plateau France Amical, it was reported at the annual meeting of the society recently. Reference was made to the splendid work started in America in 1916 by two English women, Miss Schofield and Miss Pail, resulting in nearly 200 committees being formed in the United States.

ISLAND'S BUFFALO HERDS FREED OF COYOTE PEST

SALT LAKE CITY—Governor Bennett's predatory animal hunters after two years' hard work with traps and poison, have successfully exterminated every coyote on Antelope Island in Great Salt Lake and now sheep, cattle and buffalo herds may roam about without danger, according to official announcement.

Antelope Island, which is 15 miles long and seven miles wide, rises like a jewel in Utah's "Bead of Gold." With all the coyotes gone it is a virtual paradise for the stockman and it is considered highly improbable that any of the animals will get to the island from the mainland.

The buffalo herd on the island is one of the last on the continent. The animals belong to a private corporation and are occasionally used in connection with motion picture enterprises and frequently hunters, by paying a stipulated sum of money, are allowed to slay one of the "Monarchs of the Plains."

HUGE GAMBLING RAKE OFF HELPS OPERATE FRANCE

PARIS—Gamblers in France, makers of the race tracks and the green table, lost $2,000,000,000 francs in 1933. This was the total rake-off of the Casinos, added to the percentage collected by the government and the racing associations on the mutual betting payments.

In addition to the foregoing, there is a vast amount of irregular betting conducted by the bookmakers on which neither government nor racing associations gets a commission, and just now experts are studying how this illicit trade can be made to pay its contribution. The state wants its rake-off.

Of the casinos, that at Deauville was the biggest winner, with 25,000,000 francs.

PLENTY OF SNOW, IS TED'S REPORT

"Snow, snow, and then more snow." That was Ted's song Monday as he stood watching the flakes come tumbling down.

"Some how or other I like the idea of this snow storm," he said, "alho I admit it is not especially pleasant for a fellow that has to be out of doors all day. The weather man just told me it will keep on snowing until Tuesday and that it will turn colder Monday night. He was afraid to predict any more so I will take it upon myself to say that the snow will be two feet deep—more or less."

MAJOR LEARNS ART OF SHAVING IN AIRPLANE
MANILA.—The difficulties of shaving in an airplane while flying more than 9,000 feet above the earth were experienced recently by Major A. S. Fletcher of the Philippine Scouts.

Three United States army airplanes which had been sent to Zamboanga to take part in the annual carnival were about to take off for Manila when Major Fletcher decided to make the trip. He needed a shave badly. There was no time for it in his quarters so he took his shaving outfit with him.

Using water from his canteen he made his father and when he was ready to apply it the airplane had ascended so high that the father failed from his face in the gale as fast as it was put on. However, Major Fletcher persevered and when he arrived at Manila showed evidence of having had a fairly good shave.

200 SKATERS FLOAT OUT TO SEA, RESCUED BY SHIP

COPENHAGEN—The remarkable rescue of 200 persons, who, while skating, were carried out to sea on a huge ice floe, is reported from a small town near here. While the skaters were enjoying the sport the wind loosened a large mass of ice from the fast pack. The floe began to drift rapidly seaward with the helpless skaters.

While all harbor authorities were notified a steamship was dispatched and a number of fishing craft put out to sea. The steamship caught up with the floe several miles from shore and took off 100 of the skaters, while the others were rescued by fishing craft.

MISS NANN DONOHUE, 68, DIES AT BROTHER'S HOME

A complication of diseases lasting four months caused the death Monday noon of Miss Nann Donohue, 68, at the home of her brother, Michael Donohue, 615 E. Second-st.

Miss Donohue's home was in Bellefontaine but she had been residing with her brother for the past three months. She is survived by two other brothers, Jerry, of S. Main st., and R. J., of Bellefontaine. Body will be removed to the home of her brother in Bellefontaine Monday night. Funeral services will be held Thursday at 9 a. m. at St. Patrick's Catholic church. Interment will be made in the Catholic cemetery.

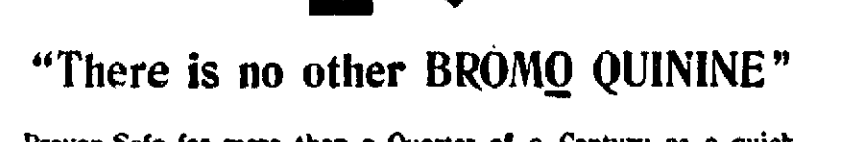

MOST POPULAR DOG IN ENGLAND IS NOT BULL

LONDON—England's most popular dog is not, as one might suppose, the English bull-dog, but the fox-terrier. Of the 600 dogs of all breeds exhibited at a recent London show, more than a hundred were smooth or wire haired fox-terriers. Scotchams were second favorites.

LIMA TO GET STATE, CITY FREE EMPLOYMENT BUREAU, COLUMBUS ADVICES ASSERT

Opening of a state-city free employment agency in Lima is contemplated, according to word from Columbus. Herman R. Witter, state director of industrial relations has the Lima project under consideration, according to apparently authentic sources.

State-city free employment bureaus now are maintained in Akron, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Dover, Hamilton, Middletown, Toledo, Van Wert, Warren and Youngstown.

The shortest month of the year brought 45,169 demands for work to the state bureau, O. W. Brach, chief of the state division of labor statistics reports. Of the number registering 22,605 were males and 12,564 females.

Demands for help increased in February over January, the report shows, there being calls for 15,369 persons, 8,458 males and 6,911 females. Of the applicants for work 14,994 were referred and 12,819 were placed.

In farm and dairy work there were 371 applicants, 246 calls for help, 272 referred and 150 placed.

PASTOR HELD AS AID OF "NICKY" ARNSTEIN

YOUNGSTOWN—Municipal Judge Joseph Heffernan Monday bound over to the grand jury Rev. Nicholas Podluszky, pastor of a Greek Orthodox church in Warren, Ohio, on a charge of helping Jules (Nicky) Arnstein and Charles (Punk) Drucker to swindle Michael Kasmerick and his brother-in-law, John Lusky.

Both of Howell, Pa., out of $48,000 in an alleged wire tapping game. Bail for the pastor was fixed at $2,000 which was furnished.

The judge's decision, which came after a hearing lasting several days, contained a severe arraignment of the police department. He declared the alleged wire tappers could not have operated here for three years without "positive protection" from the police.

LESS VOLSTEAD IS RADIO PLEA

Vote of Fans is 3 to 1 for Modification of Law

CHICAGO—(United Press)—Radio fans voted "wet" by a majority of almost three to one in the first radio poll ever taken on the prohibition question, according to returns today at WJAZ, Edgewater radio station.

"Are you in favor of modification of the Volstead act? Wire yes or no," WJAZ broadcasted.

A flood of telegrams almost swamped local telegraph offices. The count stood 27,120 for modification of Volstead law and 10,071 opposed. Several thousand wires arrived after the 10:30 p. m. limit set and were not counted.

Every state in the union responded; messages came from every province in Canada, including Nova Scotia, hundreds of "votes" were sent from ships on the Atlantic and Pacific.

The wet and dry question was discussed over the radio by speakers for both sides, before the vote was taken.

SHOALS LEGISLATION GIVEN RIGHT OF WAY

WASHINGTON—Muscle Shoals legislation was given right of way in the house today over bills which ordinarily are considered on Monday.

Those in charge of the measure said they were confident a final vote would be reported before the end of the day on Henry Ford's bid for the properties.

CRASH RESULTS IN $5,000 SUIT

Crossing Victim Files Action Against L. E. & W. Road

Balm of $5,525 for injuries in Balm of $5,525 for injuries in W. switch engine hit his automobile at E. Market-st. crossing, June 1, is demanded in a suit filed in common pleas court Monday by Lee Warnick, crane-man, 442 Columbus-av.

Warnick recites that he was riding across the tracks on the date named at about 4:45 p. m. He asserts it is the duty of the railroad to maintain a crossing watchman in E. Market-st., and that one was on duty.

He was given no signal to halt, or warning of danger, he asserts. Neither did the crew of the engine which approached from a northerly direction, give warning. The whistle was not blown, nor the bell rung, he says.

In the resultant collision, Warnick asserts, he suffered severe hurts, which confined him to bed for many weeks, and which prevent him from walking without discomfort at the present time.

CRABBE'S RULING MAY BE TESTED

Court Action on Card Men Decision Threatened

ATTORNEYS PLAN FOR MOVE

Working in Accord With Anti-Saloon League

COLUMBUS—(Associated Press)—Attorney General Crabbe's ruling which outlawed "card" deputies may be given a court test, according to current reports here today. Debutante decision to this effect is reported to have been reached by attorneys here yesterday when, it is said, are working in complete accord with the Ohio Anti-Saloon League. The manner in which the question will be tested, however, has not been determined. Counselors who have inquired into the issue have expressed the opinion there is but little doubt that in a court test the Crabbe ruling may be overturned. Meanwhile, the question of whether the local card men, who now call themselves deputy marshals and special constables, can make arrests anywhere in the county in which they reside, has not been determined. The deputies have continued to make arrests and this for the issue has not been presented to any court.

FELT LIKE LEAD IN STOMACH

Says Stomach Would Bloat Up and Burn and Cause Her Intense Suffering

RELIEVED BY PLANT JUICE

Another surprising testimonial which shows the extreme power and efficacy of this herbal medicine. Plant Juice in cases of stomach trouble was received by the Plant Juice Man, who was at Houston, Texas, recently, from Mrs. J. L. Lander, a popular Houston lady, living at 111 A. B.ington Street, that city.

MRS. J. L. LANDER

"Four years ago I had typhoid fever and it left me with an awful case of stomach trouble," said Mrs. Lander. "I had pains in my stomach, which got so intense they would wake me up at night. After eating I would have gas in my stomach which would cause bloating and pains between my shoulders. I had a lump in my stomach which felt as heavy as lead and I had burning spells in my stomach. I was weak and run down and lived in a terrible condition. I tried many different medicines and treatments, but without results. Then finally, I heard of your Plant Juice and started taking it. It was just what I needed. I lost weight and am just feeling fine. I have gained 10 pounds; eat and sleep good and am just feeling fine. I do not have those awful pains in my stomach any more; have been relieved of the lump in my stomach and those burning spells are gone. And I do not feel weak any more. And I feel like I did before."

"In short, I think your Plant Juice Medicine is just wonderful and I am glad to tell others about it."

Plant Juice is sold in Lima at Foster's drug stores, 49 Public Square and Main and Wayne streets and at the Argonne drug store, oppo. Post Office.

Fellowship of Prayer

Daily Lenten Bible reading and meditation prepared for Commission on Evangelism of Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America.

Read Mt. 5:38-48. Text: 5:44-45. But I say unto you, Love your enemies; that ye may be sons of your Father who is in heaven.

"If there is to be a getting from God in response to an asking, the asking must be for something to be used in a friendly way, for something that can be directly or indirectly shared with another."

MEDITATION: All prayer that is vital must come from a mind which is striving to be like God's mind. We think of God not as existing for himself but for his children and it is as children of our Father God that we approach him. This we cannot do until we seek to have an attitude like God's towards his other children.

PERSONAL QUESTION: Is there anyone for whom I do not want to pray?

PRAYER: Most gracious Father, who hast made of one blood all nations of men, may we never harden our hearts against any but grant us a universal charity towards all men. May the mind which was in Jesus Christ be in each one that we may have true affection for all thy children. Amen.

14,000 VIOLATORS OF BLUE LAWS ARE CITED

JERSEY CITY, N. J. — The county grand jury will consider tomorrow the cases of 14,000 violators of "blue laws" passed in 1798. Thru-out the county yesterday the police enforced the law strictly, summoning the owners of drug, confectionery, fruit and other stores, barber shops, delicatessen stores, restaurants, theatres, saloons and news stands.

Supreme Court Justice Minturn has asked that steps be taken to indict all guilty of willfully violating the laws after church organizations had conducted a vigorous campaign against Sunday movies. The penalty for violation of the law is $1. No action was taken yesterday against radio broadcasting. Boys playing marbles were not molested but the police threaten to take action against them next Sunday when the crusade will continue.

WESTERN PIONEER TELLS INTERESTING EXPERIENCE

Frank Rikert, Who Left Illinois for California in Covered Wagon in 1864, Wouldn't Take $100 for Bottle of Tanlac.

Frank Rikert, well-known resident of North Sacramento, Cal., who came to the state from Illinois in a covered wagon in 1864, along with other hardy pioneers, recently exhibited a bottle of Tanlac, which he had just purchased, to a friend at his home and remarked: "If I thought this was the last bottle of Tanlac I would ever be able to buy, I wouldn't take one hundred dollars for it," thus proving the high valuation he places on the famous treatment.

"I believe Tanlac really saved my life when I took it after the flu about a year ago," continued Mr. Rikert, "for the attack left me 20 pounds off in weight, and unable to turn over in my bed without assistance. I felt you, I thought my time had surely come."

But, thanks to my wife's insistence, I kept on taking Tanlac till I was able to do all my work again. I had back all my lost weight, and I've been feeling years younger ever since. I'm always telling my friends about Tanlac, and can't say too much for it."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Cocoanut Oil Makes A Splendid Shampoo

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, be careful what you wash it with.

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali. This does a serious, makes the hair brittle and a very harmful. Mulshed coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and entirely free of alkali) is much better than anything else you can use for shampooing, as this cannot possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. Two or three tea-spoons will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. The latter rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and silky, bright, fluffy, wavy, and easy to manage.

You can get Mulshed coconut oil shampoo at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and a few ounces will last everyone in the family for months.

DANIELS DEAF TO PLEAS FOR OIL

"Keep It In The Ground," Former Navy Chief's Policy

INSIDE STORY GIVEN OUT

Wilson Cabinet Member Tells Of Many Seeking Leases

For the first time, Josephus Daniels, former secretary of the navy, tells in the following article the "inside story" of efforts made to get control of naval oil reserves.

(BY JOSEPHUS DANIELS)
Secretary of the Navy During Wilson Administration

AFTER Congress had set aside naval oil reserves, many persons came to me to inquire about leases.

Letters from all sections of the country asking questions of every kind were received. Private interests wanted to develop the naval oil reserves.

My policy was, and always will be, to keep the oil in the ground where it belongs for naval emergency. I let it be known that I would not consider leasing.

So I do not know personally who might have come representing one interest or another.

There is one instance I do recall that links itself with names mentioned in the present oil leasing scandals and, in the light of recent evidence, is quite interesting.

It was after election, and the Wilson administration had but a few months more in office.

George Creel, who ran the Bureau of Public Information during the war, came into the office one day.

He told me he had friends in Colorado who were interested in leasing Teapot Dome and wanted to talk to me about it.

I told him there was not a chance on earth.

"George," I told him, "what's the use of having a naval reserve if you exploit it? I have spent years trying to preserve the naval oil reserve."

Creel then said: "Well, that's all right, but I wish you'd see them anyhow. They're good Democrats and friends of mine."

"All right, bring 'em in," I said. And Creel left. He returned with a stack of cards and a letter.

Stack put his cards flatly on the table. He explained that he wanted to lease the Teapot Dome reserve.

I told him that I was wasting time; that I was for conservation of the reserve.

"Do you think that oil is going to stay in the ground?" Stack asked as he looked at his cards.

"Of course it will," I answered. "I've seen to it that it will; some day it is going to be the salvation of the navy."

"Well, let me tell you," Stack added candidly, "it isn't going to stay in the ground."

I believed I asked him what he meant, but at any rate he went on in some such words as these:

"It can't stay in the ground because a new administration is coming, and it will be taken out by them. Now I'm a Democrat, and my friends are Democrats. Isn't it better to let the Democrats and your friends have it than to wait until the other fellows do?"

"There is no such thing as politics in naval reserves and oil," I told him. "It is possible that there are certain politicians bad enough to do a thing of that sort, but those in power wouldn't dare. They couldn't expect to get away with it. Besides it is my observation that persons of the opposite are just as desirous of serving their navy, and are honest."

And I believed it. I have known a great many politicians in many parties, and did not believe Stack had proper foundation for his words.

He seemed inclined to scoff at this view; declared he knew what was talking about; told me that there was no use taking that attitude for, said he, the "oil would be taken out" by others and I might as well realize that.

"And," he concluded as nearly as I can recall, "I stand ready to pay more for it. It will be done anyway and the government might as well get as much out of it as it can. I know what I'm talking about. You had best let your friends and Democrats have it."

I merely smiled then.

But things loomed now, it seems that he might have known what he was talking about.

PIPELESS FURNACE CAUSE FIRE DAMAGE SUNDAY

An over heated pipeless furnace was the cause of a blaze at the home of Frank Frail, 1209 W. North-st, Sunday at 5:05 p. m.

The family had left the house with the furnace door open, and on their return found the large front room, where the one heating shaft is, in flames.

The loss including damage to the property and furniture is estimated at about $200.

At 5:50 p. m. Sunday the firemen responded to a call from the home of W. M. McNamara, 636 N. Main-st, where the fire was burning out. No damage.

At 8:05 p. m. a call was sent in from the St. Joe Co. On the arrival of the firemen they discovered the fire burning out. No damage.

SENTENCE HELD ILLEGAL
ST. CLAIRSVILLE, Ohio — Judge Cohen has ruled that the sentence of Mrs. Mary Kutcha, of Black Oak, to the reformatory for manufacturing boot is illegal because a woman cannot be sentenced for more than 30 days. Mrs. Kutcha recently was charged with making other women prisoners drunk on machine while she was working in the laundry of the prison.

U. S. BETERS ALASKAN SUNDAY TRAIN SERVICE

ANCHORAGE, Alaska. — On a more thru train each way, and a special Sunday train each way, between Anchorage and Seward, will be a feature of the summer schedule adopted by the government's Alaska railroad.

The new schedule, designed to handle the 1923 tourist traffic, shows three trains each way a week, instead of two as at present. Trains will leave Seward, Wednesdays and Fridays, arriving at Fairbanks, the interior terminal, on the following day. Trains will leave Fairbanks southbound on the same days.

Lee H. Landis, general manager of the road, announces that in addition to this service special trains will be run for the benefit of travelers, on short notice, if 100 or more passengers request them. The government is preparing to give, besides the train service, adequate pack transportation into the Mount McKinley national park.

POLITICS FUSSES MICHIGAN

Democrats May Back Man Who Has Indorsed Coolidge

FORD'S NAME GOES AHEAD

Paradoxical Situation Looms as Result of Mixup

DETROIT. — (Associated Press) — A political paradox looms ahead of the presidential primary in this state on April 7, with the possibility of President Coolidge being the choice of the Republicans of the state and Henry Ford, whose "I am for Coolidge" proved a political sensation recently, being the Democratic choice.

A few days before Ford said: "I will not be a candidate against him on any ticket, whatsoever." Ford petitions, circulated throughout the state were presented to the secretary of state as the candidate for the regular Democratic preferential choice. Having got this far, the Democratic leaders came to an abrupt halt with Ford's announcement that he was for Coolidge.

But they could not withdraw the name, as the law specifically states that only the candidate himself has this right, once the petitions are presented and accepted. To date Ford has not withdrawn his name, and has given no inkling that he intends to. Thus the Democratic backers of Ford found themselves in the unenviable position of having agitated and consummated the candidacy of a man whose expressed sympathies are all with the opposition.

While President Coolidge has been named as the preference of Gov. Alex. J. Goresbeck and H. B. Gady, chairman of the Republican state committee, United States Senator Hiram W. Johnson has whipped an organization into shape, named his county managers, established his headquarters and named Michigan as a battle ground by making one of his first campaign speeches here. Johnson supporters recall that Michigan expressed its presidential preference for the California senator in 1920 and they say that that favorable sentiment still exists.

A significant point in connection with Michigan's state politics is the almost lack of early discussion of issues. The Teapot Dome disclosures created somewhat of a furor in Michigan political circles, mainly because they involved Edwin Denby, secretary of the navy, a Detroitite. The reaction in the case of Denby has been somewhat of a blotting out of political lines in going to the navy secretary's defense.

TWO FINED; TWO RELEASED
IN CITY CRIMINAL COURT

Charles Elder, of Scotts Crossing, and Mike McNamara, 117 E. Grand-av, were each fined $25 in criminal court Monday morning when they were arraigned on a charge of drunkenness.

L. A. Noonon, 909 S. Main-st, and Harry Moore, of this city, were released by Judge Neil R. Poling when they promised to not drink any more liquor.

DENBY "DIES WITH FACE TO ENEMY"

Resignation of the Navy Secretary is Effective Today

SPEAKS AT FAREWELL DINNER

Oil War Most Bitter of Any, He Declares

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press) — Secretary Denby's resignation became effective today amid the tributes of his associates in the navy department.

"I am trying," he told them, "to die with my face toward the enemy."

Denby's successor has not been selected, although the field is understood to have been narrowed in the last few days. Until an appointment is made, Assistant Secretary Roosevelt will be in charge as acting secretary.

The list of eligibles mentioned to succeed Denby has dwindled to Governor Dixon of Montana, James E. Davidson, Republican national committeeman from Michigan, and former Representative Foss of Illinois.

Denby devoted today to department business requiring his personal attention and to saying farewells. He will return to Detroit shortly and is expected to announce then his plans for the future, particularly with reference to reports that he intends to seek the Republican nomination for United States senator.

At a farewell dinner in his honor last night he told 200 navy and marine officers that he had served thru three wars—with Spain, the world war and that revolving about the oil investigation—and declared "better than any."

BECOMES MAJOR
High officers of the navy and marine corps also were present today in Denby's office when he was sworn in as a major in the marine reserve corps. The oath was administered by Major General Le-Jour, commandant of the marine corps.

Just as the ceremony was concluded and as Denby stood with raised hand repeating the words in which he pledged himself to defend the United States against all her enemies, the marine band, grouped on the street outside into the strains of the marine corps march, "Semper Paratus."

The retiring secretary's desk was covered profusely with flowers sent by his friends and admirers to grace it on his last day as head of the navy department. As his last official act he received and greeted the naval attaches from the embassies and legations in Washington, who came in full uniform, and hundreds of civilian employees of the navy department, who passed in line to shake hands and say goodbye.

Activities of Dog Catcher Boosts Demand for Licenses

Round-up of stray dogs in Allen-co commenced a week ago is being reflected in increased returns from sale of dog licenses. In the office of C. R. Phillips, county auditor.

Many persons who have been letting their pets run at large untaged, have acted to save them from ruthless clutches of Fred Morgan, official dog catcher.

The result is licenses sold for 1924 have jumped approximately 500 since the round-up started. The figures at the auditor's office show that more than 2200 tags have been sold.

Auditor Phillips declared this number is still at least 1,200 under the estimated number of canines in the county.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL
Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel.

The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clogged bowels and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 30c.

DISABLED MEN DECLARED TO BE TURNED OUT UNFIT

WASHINGTON. — Disable service men are being turned out of government training schools incompetent to fill jobs for which they are supposed to have been fitted. Thomas Kirby, legislative agent of the Disabled American veterans, told the house veterans committee today.

As a result unemployment is spreading among them, Kirby said. He appealed to congress to provide funds with which to give governmentally trained men half year's placement training in positions which require experience before they can be satisfactorily filled.

"Instead of the veteran's bureau saving more than $65,000,000, this year, let us save a few million less and finish the job upon which the government already has spent vast fortunes," said Kirby.

MYSTERY DEATH IS INVESTIGATED

Man's Body is Found on Outskirts of Crestline

BULLET HOLE THRU TEMPLE

Note and $244 in Pockets of Victim

CRESTLINE. — (Associated Press) — Police today were trying to clear up the mystery surrounding the death of a red headed man, apparently about 28 years old, whose body was found yesterday on the Lincoln highway, on the eastern outskirts of this city.

There was a bullet hole thru the temple. It was fired, police believe, from a new revolver which had never been discharged before.

All marks had been removed from the man's clothing and attempts at identification were futile.

A memorandum which had been purchased recently and $244 were found in the pockets. In the book was written:

"I am a lost man. No name. Bury me in the cemetery with a small stone at my head."

Altho indications were that he had committed suicide, Crestline officials said, they were not convinced that the man shot himself.

The man was about five feet eight inches tall, well dressed.

SUSPECT IN AUTO THEFT
RING QUIZZED BY POLICE

CLEVELAND. — An official of a Cleveland automobile agency, was being questioned by police today as a suspect in the investigation of a half millions dollar automobile theft ring operating between Cleveland and Detroit.

Nearly $500,000 worth of automobiles have been stolen, the engine numbers changed and re-sold by members of the gang, police claim.

Detroit detectives, working with Cleveland authorities on the case, believe information was passed to the gang by an employee of a Detroit automobile company who had access to numbers on engines.

Willard Pettit Faces Murder Charge in Mansfield Court

KILLING FARMER ALLEGED

Twin Brother, Linked With Same Case, Sought

MANSFIELD. — (United Press) — Willard Pettit on trial here today charged with the murder on December 26, of John Payne, a Shelby farmer. A twin brother, Wilbur Pettit, jointly indicted with Willard, is being hunted by authorities on a similar charge.

Pettit is charged with the murder of John Payne on the evening of December 26, 1923, at the Huron Valley farm where Payne was the tenant. The farm is located between Shelby and Plymouth.

A seven-year-old girl, Bertha Pettit, is the central figure in the case. She had been taken from her father, Wilbur Pettit, twin brother of Willard Pettit, by the probate court and placed under the guardianship of John Payne.

The little girl had been permitted to spend Christmas with her father and other relatives and was being returned to the Payne house when the crime was committed.

The Pettit brothers drove to the Payne home with the little girl. Seeing Payne as he left a barn, they are charged with starting an argument, declaring the farmer attempted to take from the affections of the little girl. Some blows were struck and a moment later, Payne was shot down. It is charged.

BERLIN LOSING STUDENTS THRU HARD TIMES, SEEKS WAYS OF HELPING THEM

BERLIN. — Berlin University is making every possible effort to lighten the burdens of students who are endeavoring to earn their own living, and at the same time carry on their university work under the financial collapse which has robbed many of them of all their savings.

Professor Gustav Roethe, rector of the university, said recently that the efforts of the school on behalf of its students have been met more than half way by the student body, which strives to conceal its privations and works on earnestly under most distressing conditions.

But the hardships have driven many students out of school. Unemployment has become so general in Berlin that part-time work, frequently taken over by men and women who will give more time, or are better equipped for the tasks.

All students organizations and clubs which have been created to help the self-sustaining students have been consolidated into one big union with Dr. Michaelis, former chancellor of the republic, at its head.

This organization will open more dining halls where meals will be served to students at a low rate, or even free.

As a great majority of the students cannot afford heated and lighted rooms, the university has arranged to keep a number of study halls open until late at night for students who want to use them.

HOUSE TOO CLEAN HUSBAND SAYS

No Place for Him He Alleges During Divorce Trial

WIFE PLAINTIFF IN CASE

Tells of Mate Getting Drunk, Molesting Her Mother

Mrs. Ella O'Connell, 592 N. Jackson-st., was described as an excellent housekeeper by John P. O'Connell, former hotel man and real estate operator, in trial of a divorce action which opened before Judge H. W. Blachly, Monday.

"She was a good housekeeper," the defendant told the court. "She was too good, I couldn't go into any place in the house, except the kitchen and bedroom from one housecleaning time to another."

HER WITNESS
O'Connell was the initial witness called in the case, which was instituted by his wife, who seeks separation. O'Connell is seeking a decree on a cross petition.

When called by counsel for his wife, O'Connell denied he had been drinking for six months prior to the separation last fall.

Mrs. O'Connell testified that when she married the defendant in 1914, he promised to quit liquor. She declared he persisted in indulging in the habit regularly.

"I can't tell you how many times he came home polluted," she declared, "but it was most every night."

"Polluted?" she was asked, "How do you mean?"

"Drunk, intoxicated," she said. "On one occasion, the witness said, O'Connell came home and tried to make love to her mother who was reclining on a lounge."

BECAME ILL
He went to a saloon New Year's eve, she said, and on his return home got into the bathroom and became ill, soiling the floor and his clothing. She also related another time when O'Connell is alleged to have returned home, and started for the kitchen sink, he missed it and fell to the floor. Two years ago, she said the defendant stayed in more at night and consequently did not drink so much. Last year, however, he was a frequent caller in a cafe, whose operator she named. He got his drinks there, she said.

When drinking, Mrs. O'Connell said, her mate was cross and abusive. She declared that once when he was angry he put her out in the snow, barefooted and clad only in a thin night robe.

The defendant was described by the wife as being "so polluted that he did not know what he was doing."

Trouble between the two culminated when O'Connell is alleged to have procured his wife's arrest on a charge of cursing.

DENIES CHARGES
On cross examination, the witness denied she compelled her mate to bathe in the kitchen for seven years, denying him use of the bathroom, because he would get it dirty.

She admitted she objected to his smoking, because it made her sick. She also admitted she did not want the defendant to spit in the house or in the front yard.

Mrs. O'Connell also admitted striking the defendant, when he is alleged to have accused her with "sleeping with a dog."

Thirty-three witnesses have been called in the case. O'Connell owns considerable Lima realty including the Erie hotel.

hereby call upon local officials, city, village, county and township, to exercise all possible diligence in the enforcement of prohibition laws.

"Those who do this honestly, courageously and conscientiously will render great public service in this emergency and will make unnecessary any disciplinary action on the part of the state."

"I do not want to make a police court of the governor's office, but when occasion demands, I shall not shrink the duty devolving upon me as law of Ohio."

"In this connection, private citizens of Ohio must not forget their own responsibilities in the enforcement of the law. They are stockholders in the community in which they reside and whenever they are aware of violations they should report them to the proper authorities. The citizen who is blind in the eye next to law violation is a misfit in our system of government. Officials will be more effective and efficient in their public duties if they have the encouragement and support of their constituents."

WRIT IN SUNDAY CLOSING CASE IS DISMISSED

YOUNGSTOWN—Judge George H. Gessner, in common pleas court today dismissed the alternate writ of mandamus he issued last week to independent gasoline dealers, directing he mayor and police chief to enforce the Ohio Sunday closing law. The court held that petitioners have adequate remedy at law for the discrimination which they allege in being closed on Sunday while theatres and confectioneries are permitted to operate.

is expected to be required tomorrow but the committee plans to question several more of its employees before calling him to the stand. Afterwards the committee plans to go into the reports of its auditors and then take up the Chicago convention matter which was brought to its attention last week thru a published statement by Leonard Wood Jr., that his father Major General Wood was offered support at a critical time for the nomination in 1929 on condition that he agree to appoint Jake Hamon, millionaire oil man, and until his death some time afterwards, Republican national committeeman from Oklahoma, secretary of the interior, if he should be elected president.

DAUGHERTY PROBE
With witnesses arriving for the opening of the senate inquiry into the administration of Attorney General Daugherty, efforts to shake him out of the cabinet, while apparently continuing over the weekend, have brought no surface developments.

Despite the manifest desire of many administration leaders for his immediate retirement and the preparations that have been made to fill his place at almost a moment's notice, the attorney general has shown no visible sign of weakening in his announced determination not to resign until after the inquiry.

The charges that former Secretary Fall and the Doherty and Sinclair oil interests have taken a hand in the Mexican revolution against the Mexican government and that efforts by department of justice agents to prevent violations of neutrality along the border were "called off by Washington," have been selected tentatively by the investigating committee as the first subject for their inquiry.

SINCLAIR MEETS ATTORNEYS
CHICAGO—(United Press)—Harry F. Sinclair, holder of the Teapot Dome oil lease, now under investigation by the government, attended a mass meeting of his lawyers here today. Some four or five attorneys and his assistants, accompanied by two or three from Chicago and perhaps a few others will leave for Cheyenne, Wyo., Sinclair arrived here from New York accompanied by Martin W. Littleton, R. W. Ragland, Paul D. Cravath and other noted lawyers from the east. Colonel J. W. Zevely, Sinclair's Washington attorney, who has already appeared before the senate investigating committee, also is here.

"Nothing to say," Sinclair declared, smiling broadly at newspaper men.

Still smiling, he posed for photographers, and then whistling a cheery air, he departed for his hotel and meeting.

Sinclair and his attorneys discussed the stand to be taken in the federal court at Cheyenne, where decision is to be made on whether the Sinclair Company is to continue the Teapot Dome.

MEICAN REVOLT CHARGE IS DENIED BY DOHENY

NEW YORK—D. L. Doherty, oil magnate, lessee of Naval reserve land, who is now a principal in the senate oil investigation today branded as "absolutely and unqualifiedly false," charges that he may have been implicated in furthering a revolution in Mexico against General Obregon.

At the same time Doherty revealed that he had loaned the Obregon government $5,000,000 "which enabled it to put down the revolution."

GIRL'S TESTIMONY BRINGS MAN FINE OF $250

Testimony of Miss Amelia Teeple, 29, Napoleon, against Royden J. Davis, 30, L. E. & W. fireman, 632 1-2 S. Main-st., resulted in his conviction before Judge H. W. Blachly in common pleas court Monday.

She charged that Davis represented to her that he was single. The court ordered the defendant to pay $250 to the girl. Of this sum, $100 is to be paid March 24, $100 in four months and $50 in eight months.

Davis is married, testimony showed, and has one child.

CLEAR THE STAGE FOR MAKING NEW CARDINALS

ROME—Cardinal O'Connell of Boston, left for Naples today to sail home on the liner Franconia. When asked why he was not staying for the Easter consistory at which Archbishop Hayes of New York and Archbishop Mundelein of Chicago are to be raised in the cardinalate, he replied:

"The stage must be left clear for Hayes and Mundelein. This is their day; they must have it all by themselves."

The hotel apartment occupied by Cardinal O'Connell during his stay here will be reserved for Archbishop Mundelein who like the Bostonian, is known in Rome and familiar with the Italian language and customs.

Archbishop Hayes' apartment has already been arranged for at the American College.

Hope for Men Entombed in Utah Pit Abandoned

31 BODIES ARE RECOVERED

Rescue Crews Digging for Remainder of Victims

(BULLETIN)
CASTLE GATE, Utah—(United Press)—Thirty-one bodies have been removed from Number 2 mine of the Utah Fuel Company. Eighteen have been positively identified.

CASTLE GATE, Utah—(Associated Press)—Eighteen bodies of miners killed Saturday when a series of explosions virtually destroyed mine number two of the Utah Fuel Co. and entombed 175 men, had been brought out early today and all available trucks were pressed into service upon reports that "many" bodies had been found and would be brought to the surface.

Indications were that none of the miners in the workings had escaped.

HOPE ABANDONED
As a result hope virtually was abandoned by company officials that any of the entombed men would be found alive. Last night the rescue crews proceeded approximately 2,200 feet into the escape-way portal from which all rescue work is being carried on and extinguished a smoldering fire that had been burning all day. With the announcement that the fire had been extinguished also came the report that there were no signs of additional fires anywhere in the mine.

Additional rescue and fresh air crews immediately entered the mine and efforts were redoubled to find and bring out additional bodies.

At dawn additional rescue, fresh air and relief crews took up work in the mine.

Real headway in the rescue work started about midnight. Poison gas, the arch enemy of rescue crews, was dissipating in many portions of the mine. Relief stations and first aid depots were established as the workers made headway. Air lines and water lines were laid as the men advanced and no chances were taken of members of the relief force being killed by fumes.

NIGHT OF GLOOM
Last night was one of gloom and sorrow. The single street of the town was crowded with relatives of those entombed and with those who had volunteered to aid in the relief work. Sleep came only to those who had grown weary by watching. Governor Charles R. Mabey, is on the scene.

J. C. Richardson, head of the disaster relief section of the Pacific district of the Red Cross, arrived yesterday.

The first explosion occurred from an unknown cause Saturday morning. A terrific blast hurled timbers, piping and rails several thousand feet across a gulch. The eight hundred pound steel door of the escape way was hurled a half mile. A second blast came a minute later and in twenty minutes came a third. Seven cases were yesterday given out by the company where fathers and sons were working together in the mine at the time of the explosion.

LINCOLN STARTED LAD ON TRADE

War Vet Tells How He Painted Fences for President

OMAHA,—(Associated Press)—Eppeneus Webb McIntosh, 79, civil war veteran and former office boy for Abraham Lincoln when the latter was a lawyer at Springfield, Ill., became a painter because the emancipator started him at this trade. He continued as a painter until his age no longer would permit him to climb ladders and paint buildings.

In commemorating the birthday of the former president McIntosh, who was the first member of the Grand Army of the Republic, related that Lincoln had hired his first white lead for him and then described how he spent two days painting Lincoln's fence. When the job was completed Lincoln selected McIntosh to clean out his office, which he continued to do for about three years.

"Sometimes he would give me a quarter and then again he would give me fifty cents, but in those days you could buy a bushel of potatoes for three cents," said McIntosh in telling of his pay.

When he was seven years old, McIntosh declared, Lincoln bought him a drum, carried by the aged veteran throughout the war, and which now hangs in the national museum in Washington.

When Lincoln was debating the wool question with Stephen Douglas, his opponent for the presidency in 1860, McIntosh accompanied him as his drummer on several of his campaign tours. The only compensation he ever received, McIntosh declared, were his expenses.

"After Douglas had defeated him, Lincoln got up, in sections, took off his coat and laid it behind him. As he did so he stretched his long arms above it and said: 'Lie there, American wool, while I sleep.' He won his debate by a wide margin," McIntosh asserted.

ROTARY CLUB MEMBERS ENJOY ORGAN RECITAL

Lima Rotary club members enjoyed an organ recital Monday noon at the Page Organ Co. after its regular weekly luncheon at Hotel Norval. The program which lasted for half an hour, consisted mostly of classical numbers. Interspersed with several popular selections.

$15,000 BUILDING PLANNED

Recommends Twelve Circuits and Purchase of 75 Boxes

Expenditure of $50,000 to modernize Lima's fire alarm system is urged by Fire Chief John Mack in a letter to City Manager C. A. Bingham.

Installation of a 12 circuit Gamewell alarm system will cost approximately $35,000.

Mack also recommends erection of an addition to E. High-st station house for an alarm receiving station. This will cost $15,000, bringing the total to $50,000.

The modern alarm system provides for purchase of 75 new alarm boxes. Installation of a 12 circuit underground conduit system, scrapping of the present system and repair of 72 fire alarm boxes now used.

Bond issue to provide funds for purchase of the equipment is the only course open to the city. Under section 3929, paragraph 27, Ohio General Code, the city has authority to issue bonds in any amount for erection of fire stations or improvement of fire departments.

Four circuit system used by the city is insufficient to handle the load of as high as 23 alarm boxes at a circuit when the maximum capacity should not exceed 16 boxes, according to Fire Chief Mack, who said if the city contemplated improving the system only the best should be purchased.

Mack's estimates were submitted in response to a fire department reorganization program started by Manager Bingham who recommends erection of two new district fire stations, division of the department into two battalions and also a combination police and fire alarm boxes in the business district.

"TOO MUCH QUANTITY" RULES GERMAN COOKING

HEIDELBERG—University professors have interested themselves in a movement to improve the German cooking. Too much attention is paid to quantity by the German cooks, it is contended, and not enough to quality. German cooking in the sixteenth century equaled that of any other country, say the domestic science experts, but during the Thirty Years' War the culinary art lost prestige and flavor which have never been regained.

WOMAN DEFENDS "SCOFFLAWS"

Housewife Seeking Name of Those Who Coined Term
REWARD OF $100 OFFERED
Jibes at Bootleggers Anger Mother of Two Boys

BY ALEXANDER HERMAN
SAUGATUCK, Conn. — Scofflaws of "scotflaw" are still on the hunt for a word to stigmatize the ultra dry.

They are rallying from all over the country to the standard of Mrs. Rose R. Scott, a young mother here, who offers the prize for an antonym of "scotflaw"—the word which was selected recently to jibe at anybody opposed to the present prohibition laws.

"Never having partaken of any drink, stronger than wholesome tea," she says, "not being in politics, nor a member of either wet or dry society, my offer is sincere."

MY HOUSEWIFE
"I am a busy housewife. My main ambition is that my two little sons, Joseph and Richard, shall be brought up intelligently to respect the laws of our country. But I don't want them restricted when they are in school. I intend to educate them in such a way that they will not need to be hedged in by laws to make them behave. I intend to train them in temperance and, by common sense, show them the evils of excessive drinking, something that all the laws in the world cannot do."

When I heard that a committee of dry advocates had got a word, "scotflaw," to make fun of those opposed to their views, I became annoyed. So I sat right down and made an offer of $100 of my own money. Suggestions for the prize word are coming in from all parts of the United States. England and France among them are:

CONDUCT OF SHERIFF IN OFFICE INVESTIGATED

COLUMBUS — Two investigations of the conduct of Sheriff Frank L. Holmstrom in office, started here today.

Prosecutor John R. King was prevented from presenting charges regarding violations of the prohibition law to the grand jury and Governor Mahoney was to receive formal charges regarding official misconduct from H. P. Griswold, special counsel from Attorney General Cullen's office. The material for a probe was furnished by the prohibition department.

Holmstrom has declared for a fight to the finish. He has issued a formal statement and will not let the copies of charges are read in his hands.

Lima Man Has Auto Equipped With Radio Set

A radio equipped Ford may sound funny, but there is just such a thing in Lima. It is the property of J. E. (Jack) Swigert, 1001 W. Wayne-st, an employee of the Buckeye Pipe Line Co.

While on business in Marietta, for the company, Swigert decided to purchase a radio. He got a set, paid a total of $40 for the outfit, and attached it to his Ford coupe.

The ground wire for the outfit attached to the steering post of the car, while the receiving set is located on the dashboard and rests against the steering post, being placed in a small box which makes it easy to take in and out as the occasion demands. The fifty feet of wire which serves as the aerial is coiled on top of the car about material which measures 49 1-2 inches across.

It is impossible to get any stations inside the business districts on account of the numerous wires, so Swigert must use his set away from conflicting wires as much as possible.

A nice thing about the set is that no holes have been drilled into the car and in construction of the set on the auto the car is not marred one particle," says Swigert. "The set may be removed from the car easily and used in the house."

MIND OF "BAD MAN" TO BE INVESTIGATED

DAYTON — Steffanos Gelingopulos, "bad man" who terrorized the northern section of Dayton View yesterday afternoon with a .45 calibre automatic pistol and was arrested after a running gun battle, was arraigned this morning before Squire Bert Badgley, charged with carrying concealed weapons and shooting to kill. He pleaded not guilty on both charges. Before a hearing is held, an examination of Gelingopulos will be ordered if it is understood, to determine his mental condition.

Gelingopulos is believed to be slightly insane on the subject of his wife, who has been missing from her home for several days.

He was captured Sunday afternoon when the driver of a truck he had commandeered at the point of his pistol stopped at the approach of a police car.

SHOALS BILLS ARE INTRODUCED

Measures Would Create Government Controlled Power System

WASHINGTON — (Associated Press) — The linking up of Muscle Shoals, Boulder Canyon and the Colorado River as the nucleus of a great government controlled super power system to produce electricity, fertilizer and nitrates is sought in bills introduced today by Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, and Representative Keller, Republican, Minnesota. Purpose of bills is to conserve and use for the public benefit the great natural resources and a non-political public service commission to cooperate with state and local bodies would be created to further the development of the project.

A bond issue of $500,000,000 as a revolving fund to carry on the initial operations would be authorized.

Representative Keller, in a statement accompanying his bill said there were 2,318 municipally owned electric power plants in the United States which would fit in as units of the system.

The bill is declared to be the "outgrowth of the work of the Public Ownership League of America, in cooperation with Senator Norris, D-Min., Democrat, Washington; Frasier, Republican, North Dakota; Howell, Republican, Nebraska; LaFollette, Republican, Wisconsin and others in the senate and Representatives Keller, Ewing, Republican, California; Welford, Farmer-Labor and, Kvale, Independent, Minnesota; Laguna dia, Republican, New York; Sinclair, Republican, North Dakota and others in the house.

BEWARE THE COUGH OR COLD THAT HANGS ON

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead to serious lung trouble. You can stop them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified creosote that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medical discovery with two-fold action. It soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical fraternity as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation and inflammation, while the creosote goes on to the stomach and is absorbed in the blood, attacks the seat of trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption. Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung disease, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or the flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold no matter of how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist. Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—Adv.

PROTECTION FOR HOME BUYERS

FOR the last several years various organizations and officials have discussed the need of zoning and building regulations in this city for the protection of home owners and home buyers. Some action has been taken, but as yet Lima is without any regulations which will protect the man who now owns his home or the man who is buying one.

About a year ago a committee of interested men spent considerable time on a zoning plan and building code but it was never adopted by the city and their work went for naught. It is possible that their plans were not feasible; we are not prepared to say, but it is certain that they started a work that should have been encouraged and carried to completion long ago.

Lima is experiencing a big building boom. Many different types of homes are being constructed and in most cases full value is given. It is not likely that any reputable builder will endanger his reputation by slapping together houses that will deceive buyers, but in the case of some who are not so conscientious about their work it would be possible for them to reap a harvest for a time in this way.

Building standards are fairly well established now and the prospective buyer may avail himself of a number of safeguards that will save him trouble and expense in the future if there is any doubt about the property he is considering.

One of the best ways to insure a square deal is thru a reputable and established real estate firm or individual—a firm or individual that will let the property stand on its merits after telling the truth about it. Another is by obtaining the services of an experienced architect or other person familiar with building standards. They know where to look for flaws that the average buyer might overlook.

Lima is fortunate in having builders who enjoy the highest reputation as the industry goes. The big majority should not be made to suffer thru the unscrupulous work of a few. For this reason there should be regulations to protect the buyer and at the same time the honest builder.

The city commission should take the necessary steps to revive the work started several months ago and work out a zoning plan and building code that will be fair to all—a set of regulations that will not give any class or profession an advantage but which will serve to benefit the general public.

HOW TO PREDICT HARD TIMES

NEARLY all of us could make quite a bit of money now and then if we could "dope out" business conditions several months in advance. For instance, a man buying or building a home might be able to save a lot of cash if he knew whether prices later were going to rise or fall.

Prediction of business conditions formerly was as uncertain as predicting the weather months ahead. But now it is becoming almost an exact science.

THE stock market rises or falls from three to six months in advance of general business conditions. If the gamblers think hard times are coming, stock market prices fall, anticipating depression. Similarly a bull market, with prices shooting upward, means that the gamblers are betting on good times ahead.

These prophetic movements in the stock market, of course, are the long-range tendencies. Trouble is, an outsider watching the market is apt to mistake a temporary setback or advance for a long-range tendency. Then, too, even the most crafty of market speculators often guess incorrectly.

ANOTHER semi-scientific business barometer is the production of pig iron. Many experts think iron output rises or falls about six months ahead of general business conditions.

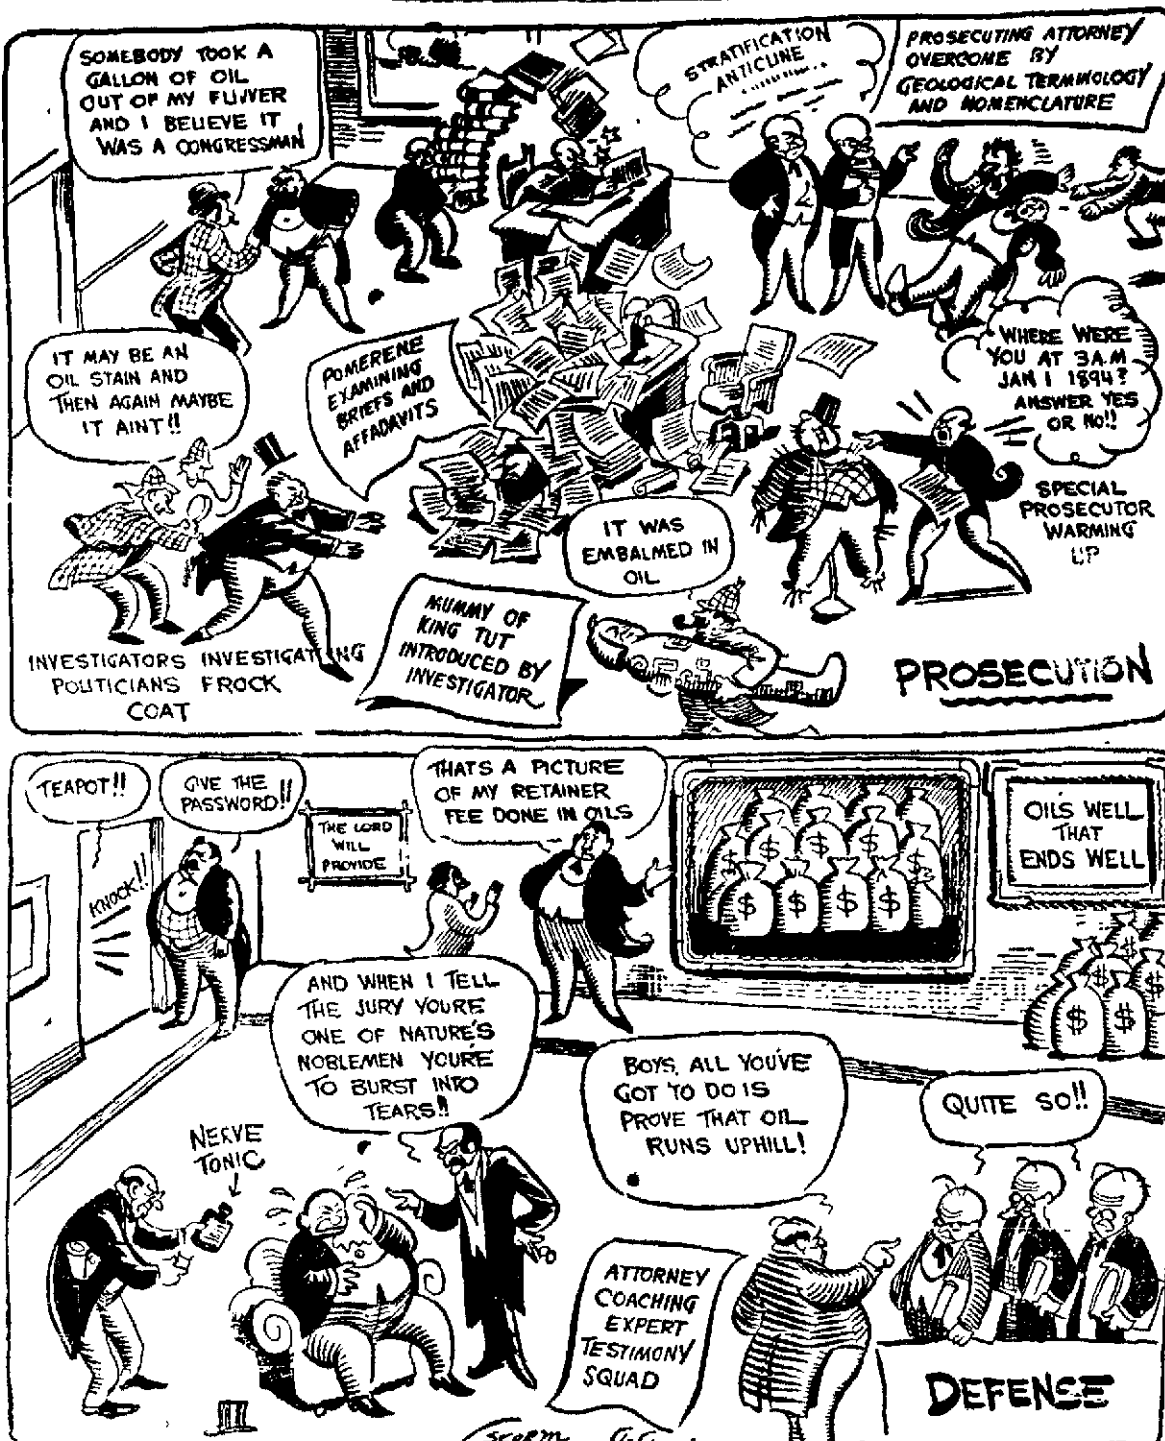

Shipments of freight over the railroads also anticipate general business trends. They reveal how manufacturers and retailers are "betting" on the future.

THE latest scientific business barometer, according to the Harvard Committee on Economic Research, is advertising in newspapers and magazines.

Some experts, however, think that advertising forecasts price changes rather than sales volume.

Lots of advertising means a general belief that times are going to be good. Newspaper advertising is more accurate in this respect, being closer to the people. Magazine advertising in a general way reflects national conditions, while newspaper ads are more confined to the local situation.

BY DR. WILLIAM BRADY EXECUTIVE RESPONSIBILITY

In New York it is the thing to "go to business," not to work, but when health fails, then the culprit readily admits it is "overwork." In New York over one-half of the disability which keeps people home from "business" is caused by the acute respiratory infections which are promiscuously spread thru the indoor season when artificial heat is used and which are therefore consistently called "colds." Perhaps a majority of persons who remain away from school, factory, store or office for a day or two now and then on account of an alleged "cold" do not have medical care, but at something over one-fourth of a physician's time during the busy season of "colds" is devoted to attending patients ill of the respiratory infections, as statistics have shown. Just how much absenteeism should be ascribed to alleged "colds" in school, business or work, is an uncertain question, for it is difficult to gauge the proportion of actual illness or indisposition and the proportion of buncombe about "colds" as an excuse for absence. Granting as much as you like to buncombe, I still contend that there is not nearly so much absenteeism from school, office and factory as there should be, for the health of all concerned. Whatever the present teaching of the New York health authorities may be in respect to the prevention of the spread of the respiratory infections which, bear in mind, are the main cause of illness and disability among the productive people of the community, the responsibility rests upon executives to a considerable extent, that is, on teachers, attendance clerks, shop foremen, managers of business places. Every little while some such executive forgets his responsibility and loudly proclaims that more "colds" do not warrant temporary absence. Maybe the outbreak is excited by unreasonable abuse of alleged "cold" as an excuse, yet one is not justified in refusing three-dollar transactions just because one has received an occasional worthless three-dollar bill. The thing to do when proffered a three-dollar bill is to accept it and pay your honest debts with it.

"At the head of our organization," writes a New York woman who goes to business, "is a young woman who does not consider a mere cold a sufficient excuse for absence from business. She has had almost a perpetual cold all winter and practically every member of our department who has to be in contact with her has been absent at one time or another. I cannot see the logic of an executive mind objecting to absence due to such illnesses and then inflicting the infection upon all who are at her mercy. To my mind it would have been better business had she remained at home a week or a day now and then instead of coming to business with her cold and spreading it among so many others whose consequent absence necessarily meant a series of set-backs to our department."

That's something like good sense. As an alternative the executive might have worn a mask. But perhaps that would not be good business.

The objection to the abuse of "cold" as an excuse for absence from school, work or business is valid only when there is evidence that the absentee has actually been out to the theater, dance, ballgame or party. No one with an alleged "cold" has a moral right to attend unmuzzled any gatherings where he exposes others to his infection, and if the illness does not require isolation at home or a proper mask then the individual is as well in school or at business as anywhere else.

This you may never know, but your son knows.
That when you passed unto your bier there came Rich proof that honor builds earth's lasting fame;
That gentleness, in earth, more brightly glows
Than the harsh conquest over fallen foes;
That the from life you were content to claim
The lesser joys, the splendor of your name
Won high distinction at the struggle's close.
He saw them come, the rich, the poor, heads bowed
In solemn tribute to the man they'd known—
Oh, gentle friend, greatest could be proud
Such true devotion and such love to own!
Not wealth, not conquest win such honest tears
As these which closed the record of your years.

Venetian Toilet Preparations

For those all important finishing touches which lend the charm of perfect grooming, Elizabeth Arden has selected the following preparations:

Venetian Amoretta Cream. An exquisitely smooth and fragrant cream to be "filmed" on the face before powdering. It protects the skin from wind and weather and forms an ideal base for powder. $1.50, $2.50.

Venetian Little Lotion. A powder in liquid form which acts as an astringent and protects the skin from sunburn and windburn. Cannot rub off. White Cream, Natural, Spanish Rachel, $1.50, $2.50.

Venetian Flower Powder embodies the fragrance and the perfection of coloring with which Nature has endowed her most delicate flowers. Its absolute purity and imperceptible adherence endears it to women of discernment. Six shades. $1.75.

Poudre d'Illusion. A face powder for the discriminating woman; a perfect flesh tint, delicately perfumed, pure and fine. Natural, Rachel, Ocre. $3.

Venetian Rouge Amoretta. In three shades. Pale apricot that gives a slight glow to the ash-blond complexion; a bizarre orange tint for the radiant blonde and a maroon for the brunette. $2.50, $4.50.

Venetian Lip Paste imparts a natural color to the lips. Just a tiny bit of it tipped on with the fingers makes the lips uniformly lovely in color. Two shades. Star (Natural), Carnation (Deep Red). $1.75.

Venetian Eye Shadow. Blended over the eyelids, this intensifies the color and brilliancy of the eyes and increases their apparent size. $1.

"Cat and Canary"
The Cat and Canary will play three performances at the Faurot, beginning with Monday night's performance, a matinee Tuesday and Tuesday night. It is a mystery play, one of the most successful of the past two seasons. It had a long run in New York, and the company which recently played an extended engagement in Chicago is the one that will be seen in Lima. The play is from the pen of John Willard. While coming within the category of comedy, it is thrilling in its action; full of excitement and romance. The company presenting the play is a carefully selected one and capable in every particular. It will undoubtedly please large audiences. It is certain that it fits into the calibre of the high class attractions that have been playing the Faurot all season.

"Footlight Follies"
MARTIN'S FOOTLIGHT FOLLIES, which opened a week's engagement at the New Orpheum theater Sunday matinee and night, scored a pronounced hit in the musical comedy of thrills, "One Exciting Night." This bill will be given for the first half of the week thru Wednesday. "One Exciting Night" is attractive because action revolves around an interesting plot, with the thread of its story serving for the introduction of song and dance numbers and for comedy that really is laughable. And, for good measure, half a dozen vaudeville specialties are thrown in. In the cast of the Follies is "Happy" Ralph Penna, of Lima, billed as "the saxophone wizard." "Chicken Night" will be given as an extra added attraction to the Follies at 7:30 performance Wednesday evening. Thursday, there will be a complete change of bill for the last half of the week.

DELPHOS AND LIMA PEOPLE JOIN IN PRAISE OF PEPGEN NEW GLAND TONIC AT HUNTER'S
Hunter Amazed at Wonderful Demand
Pepgen, the new medical discovery which has a stimulating effect upon the glands of the stomach, kidneys and liver, is being praised by hundreds of those who have taken it.

"The success of Pepgen," said Mr. C. M. Hunter, head of The Hunter Drug Stores, "amazes me. Literally hundreds of Lima people have told us how it has relieved them." "Among those who have been relieved by Pepgen is Mr. Frank Woods of Delphos." "For years," said Mr. Woods, "I did not know what it was to get a good night's sleep." "Everything I ate seemed to lay in my stomach like lead. After my meals a gas would form in my stomach. I would feel full and bloated. These attacks were worse at night. Sometimes I could not close my eyes until morning. When it came time to get up I would feel dragsy and tired. My head would ache and my tongue would be coated. I got so I hated to eat anything. I knew it would make me sick." "About six weeks ago I started taking this Pepgen. It has done the work for me." "Now my stomach trouble is gone. I eat what I please and am never troubled with any attacks of pains or gas. At night I go to sleep and sleep sound all night. When morning comes I get up feeling fresh and rested." "I know Pepgen is a good medicine and am glad to recommend it." CAUTION: The genuine Pepgen, which Mr. Woods has recommended, is packed in a white, blue and gold carton and may be obtained in Lima only at Hunter's Drug Stores, 49 Public Square and corner Main and Wayne Sts and The Argonne Store. There is a Pepgen store in every nearby town.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless
If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and two or three more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single size and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. Four ounces is all you will need no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.

KNITTING CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. POLING

MRS. J. B. Poling was hostess to a group of friends at her home, 729 W. Market-st., for bridge and card games during the afternoon. Mrs. Poling also entertained the members of the Monday Knitting club and a group of guests.

Four tables were filled for the bridge games during the afternoon. At five o'clock, a two-course tea was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. F. C. Dean, Mrs. Oliver Steiner and Mrs. Leonard Schaefer. Guests, other than the club members, were Miss Lillian Taylor, Mrs. E. J. Curtis, Mrs. T. J. Hoffman, Mrs. Harry Robinson, Mrs. Charles Kellen, Mrs. Charles Gable and Mrs. H. M. Kameron. Monkeys present included Mrs. Frank Moke, Mrs. Oliver Steiner, Mrs. Mack Kohl, Mrs. Mae Christen Belger, Mrs. Everett Purnas, Mrs. M. M. Seale, Mrs. Leonard S. Habel, Mrs. Frank Steiner and Mrs. F. C. Dean.

SUSIE SMART'S ADVICE

Dear Miss Smart: I am not a graduate of a musical college but have taken several lessons of voice culture. I am anxious to become a soprano soloist or chorus singer on the vaudeville stage. I am in the early twenties. In what way can I go about to do this? If convenient, give me the names and addresses of managers to write for information.

YOUR READER: I can give you the name of several managers to whom to write for information. If you will send me a self-addressed, stamped envelope, I will send you a list of names. Have you ever thought of going to some voice school or college for a term or two? If it is at all possible, why not try to finance it? Of course, the more training you have, the better position you can get. Perhaps if you could stay in the city another year, working, and maybe taking a few lessons to keep in practice, next year you could afford to go away. It is always easier to get engagements to sing if you have had work in a school of some kind. Are you taking voice lessons now? I would be glad to give you names of several voice teachers in the city who would be glad to talk over your future with you.

However, if you have talent and think you could make good on the vaudeville stage, there is no harm in making inquiries concerning the work. Send me your address and I will be glad to send you the addresses I spoke of.

Dear Miss Smart: Would you please answer this as soon as you can. My girl friend and I disagree on this matter very much. I am to be married soon. I have lived five years and my intended has never lived here. I have just been here on visits. She said she would have to live here several months before he married her. I said I could get married the next day after he got here, as we planned to do.

Now Miss Smart, please tell us which is right. We thank you very much. JUST GIRLS: Your husband-to-be does not have to reside in this city to procure a marriage license. If you are both of age, you will have no trouble in securing a license.

Dear Susie: As I am a constant reader of your columns, I would like for you to answer a question for me. On an invitation to a party she had the initials "R. S. V. P." on the card, and I want to know what they stand for.

How is my writing? The initials, "R. S. V. P." come from a French phrase, meaning "Very good."

Dear Miss Smart: I am a girl of 16 years of age and have a very nice girl friend. She likes me very much. I have a boy friend, a boy friend and he likes me also. When he is with me, he says he likes me, and when he is with my girl friend, he says he likes her. How can I win his love?

Friend: Tell me what these names mean: Anna, Frances, Catherine, Goldie, Frank and Charles. Thank you. BROWN EYES: You girls are entirely too young to be thinking about love. The young boy no doubt considers you both good school friends and is not looking for his "love." While he is so young, study your school work, have good times with your schoolmates and don't begin worrying over a boy's love for several years yet.

Anna means grace; Frances means free; Catherine means pure; Goldie means golden; Frank means free and Charles means strong.

Elmer McClain will tell of his Alaskan trip at the meeting of the Frances Willard Union of the W. C. T. U., to be held Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. E. A. Dean, 565 W. Elm-st. All members are urged to attend this meeting.

Mrs. Frank Ebersole, N. Baxter-st., will be hostess to the members of the N. N. Bridge club at her home Tuesday evening, instead of Monday evening, the regular meeting night.

Mrs. C. L. Burr, S. Elizabeth-st., will entertain the members of the Red Circle class of the First U. B. church at her home, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John Buescher extended charming hospitality to the Wednesday Afternoon Five Hundred club, Monday.

Mrs. Buescher invited Mrs. E. H. Herrington to play with the members. At the close of the games, it was found that Miss Mollie Steffen was successful and she was awarded the pretty trophy.

Mrs. Buescher served a delicious luncheon. The club will assemble again after Easter.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Miss Pearl Knapp, of Detroit, and Harry Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Newman, of Ottawa, which took place February 26 in St. Gabriel's church, Detroit. Miss Margaret Newman, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and the bride's brother, William Newman, was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Newman will reside in Detroit.

Mrs. John E. Deffenbaugh and daughter spent the week-end in Lima.

Because of the Lenten season, but two club meetings are scheduled for Monday. They are the meeting of the Study club with Mrs. Mary Reed and the meeting of the Research club with Mrs. Frank Wilson.

The meeting of the Ladies' Centennial Book club, scheduled with Mrs. Hubbard, who is spending the winter in the south, was not otherwise assigned and no meeting of that organization will be held.

CALIFORNIA NOW HAS 58 COOPERATIVE CONCERNS

WILSONVILLE, Cal., March 9.—The first of the new co-operative concerns in California was known as the Watsonville Apple and Raisin Co., complete with groves and orchards in the Pajaro valley. The yearly apple crop in this district totals more than 1,000,000 boxes.

There now are 58 co-operative marketing associations in the state. They are declared to bring California farmers much greater returns than through the old method of individual sale.

During 1923 farm crops of the state returned their growers approximately $531,000,000.

CORSETS BLAMED FOR TEMPER

Mary Pickford Lays Outbursts to Tight Lacing Habit

TANTRUMS PLAYED BY STAR

They Denote Inferiority and Vanity, She Declares

HOLLYWOOD — (Special) — "Have you ever noticed," said Mary Pickford, "how many women take pride in their temper? How they parade it and coddle it and lightly turn it loose on errands of misery for self and others?" "It is a confession of inferiority and of meager inner resources. And the tantrum almost invariably so advertises the undisciplined woman to those she may seek to impress."

Mary's homily on temper was inspired by comment on her latest picture, "Dorothy Vernon of Haddon Hall," whose heroine does not find happiness until she has conquered her mental turbulence.

Her experience in this picture has convinced her the reason for such flareups. This, she believes, is—corsets. Her disciplined disposition was put to sore trial when she had to undergo steel-lacing for her role.

But the general discard of tight corseting, concludes Mary, now becomes one of the causes for a decline in feminine irritability.

Miss Pickford's own climb to motion picture eminence necessitated a deliberate subjugation of her tempestuous leanings in youth, she confesses.

"I used to have temper, and was rather vain of it, when I was in my teens," she volunteered. "But I soon found it necessary to sober down because it endangered progress and kept me miserable."

NOT TEMPERAMENT — "Hastily provoked temper, in most cases, is a plain revelation of your sense of inferiority and deficiency. It is a method to attract attention thru attempted intimidation when other resources fail. It suggests the helpless creature at bay."

It is not to be confused with righteous anger, nor is it synonymous with temperance as so many of its votaries would like to have one believe. Any psychologist knows that.

"A doctor once told me never to deny vent to temper once you're surcharged with it. Otherwise there is a physical upset. These things are so to discipline and eradicate the tendency to flare up that it never needs the vent of violent act or word."

Good Manners

If a man has a written introduction to a woman, all he should do is go to her house and leave the letter and his card at the door. Then leave. It is left to the woman to invite him to some affair, or meet him whichever way she wishes.

Actress' Diary Proves Her Spy, Opens Pen Gate

LEIPSIG — Alvine Brusis, the film actress spy, who was recently sentenced to prison for ten years because of her activities on behalf of the French during the war, came to grief thru her diary.

The woman, who worked for the French in Dusseldorf, Aachen and Nice, her beauty made it possible for her to attract many men and the diary which proved her undoing showed she was frequently torn between many love affairs and had great difficulty in controlling her heart.

With singular childishness she recorded her emotions as well as the facts concerning her spy work in this diary which fell into the hands of German officers and proved her undoing.

She worked much of the time with a German medical student, who was also sentenced to prison for complicity in her espionage for which the evidence showed the woman received $1000 a month.

She also involved another medical student in her work, but the two students fought about the woman and the one who lost out managed to escape from her clutches before he was hopelessly entangled.

Prominent French diplomats and many officers of various armies are mentioned in the diary among the men who succumbed to her charms.

SWEDISH WOMEN TO GET CHURCH RIGHTS GRADUALLY

STOCKHOLM — The government committee appointed to investigate the demand of Swedish feminists that women be allowed in the Swedish church on an equal footing with men has now reported in favor of the women. The committee, however, recommended a careful selection and gradual admission and, at first, to those church posts which would benefit most from the kind of service for which women are particularly fitted.

Opinions of chapters all over Sweden have been requested by government. While all chapters emphasize the great value of women in Christian and parochial work in general and urge further utilization of their services, vitally all voiced strong objection to the admission of women to the pulpit.

NO MORE GRACE FOR TAXIMEN

Bingham to Enforce Insurance Measure After Thursday

Strict compliance with the $10,000 liability insurance ordinance will be demanded of taxi operators by City Manager C. A. Bingham after its effectiveness on Thursday.

The section of the measure compelling operators to file bonds with the city manager before licenses are issued is to be adhered to or else the city will take steps to rule cabs off the streets, Bingham said Monday.

Time extension until March 17 may be granted by the city but after that date no leniency will be extended by Manager Bingham, who refuses to grant the companies any more concessions than the companies are offered by municipal laws.

The measure, passed Monday, March 3, requires insurance to be maintained by the company on all cabs operated here. Bond of $1,000 protects property damage and bonds of $5,000 and $10,000 reimburse pedestrians and passengers for personal injury.

IRISH MOVING PICTURE PLANNED BY AMERICAN

DUBLIN — F. Leroy Granville, an American producer, was in Dublin recently making a preliminary investigation with a view to producing a motion picture depicting Irish life. He declared he would return here next summer for that purpose and invited Irish authors to submit stories. He said Americans were anxious to see a modern and faithful presentation of Irish national life, eliminating the stereotypical Irishman.

"The atmosphere in Ireland," said Granville, "is as good as it is in California, and there is some of the finest scenery in the world in Ireland."

217 ARE TAKEN BY POLICE IN RAIDS

Wholesale Roundup is Staged at Cleveland

41 CHARGED WITH GAMBLING

Two Women Officers Play Big Part in Drive

CLEVELAND — (Associated Press) — Police court was jammed this morning when prisoners were arraigned as the result of wholesale raids staged by police thru the East End Saturday night in one of the biggest vice, gambling and liquor law violation cleanups in recent years.

Two hundred and seventeen persons were arrested, including 21 for intoxication, 29 for violating the liquor law, 19 for vice charges and 41 for gambling.

In the raid upon one hotel, two police women, Emma Schuler and Frances Gratz, played prominent parts. Miss Schuler took over the operation of the hotel telephone switchboard, while the officers went into the hotel rooms.

Answering inquiries of guests as to the cause of the disturbance, she reassured them, asking their names and added the officers making arrests.

WOLVES KILL FRESTER

INSTERBURG, Eastern Prussia — Russian wolves have been driven into Eastern Prussia by the long, hard winter and deep snows, and a forester named Birche was recently attacked by a pack of the hungry animals near this town and torn to pieces.

My Experience is that
DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPSIN
Is just what you need

This Will Make Digestion Easy

WHAT the dyspeptic needs is not soda and charcoal and breath perfumes but a medicine that will help his bowels to move regularly, for dyspepsia and constipation are allied. If you will take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin systematically as the directions on the package call for you will soon digest your food properly and pass it out normally, and heartburn, belching, dizziness, nervousness and bloating will vanish. In time you can dispense with all medicines as Syrup Pepsin will have exercised the intestinal and stomach muscles so they act for themselves. Mr. Lewis F. Schultz of Roseton, La., Mrs. Victor Knoder of 3625 Bank St., Louisville, Ky., and hosts of others will verify this.

World Acclaims Success

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the prescription of a well-known physician of that name who practiced successfully for 47 years. It has been on the market thirty years and is today the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world. Thousands of families have it in their medicine chest ready when any mishap occurs of dyspepsia, constipation, torpid liver, sour stomach, biliousness, coated tongue, offensive breath, headaches and such ailments that indicate deranged stomach and bowels. Many serious diseases are prevented by this timely aid.

Formula Plainly Stated

Have no hesitancy giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to anyone young or old. It is a mild, gentle laxative free from narcotics. It will not cramp or grip. The formula is on the package, a compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and simple aromatics. A bottle can be had at any drug store and averages less than a cent a dose. Economical for families and fully guaranteed. You will find it a great improvement in taste and action over castor oil, or "candy cathartics," made from coal-tar that cause skin diseases, colic that loosens the teeth, salts in water or powder that concentrate the blood and dry the skin.

FORTUNE'S FOOL

BY RAFAEL SABATINI
ILLUSTRATED BY E.W. SAWYER

RELEASING BY MCA SERVICE, INC.

BEGIN HERE TODAY.

Colonel Holmes, soldier and adventurer, returns to England, his native land, when war with Holland is declared. His Grace of Buckingham hires him to abduct the actress Sylvia Farquharson. It is dark when the colonel carries her off and, when he arrives at the house, Buckingham has heard of the abduction and is in a rage. He orders the colonel to be hanged. Holmes is in a duel with Sylvia. The servants of the Duke of Buckingham and Holmes engage in a duel. The servants of the Duke of Buckingham and Holmes engage in a duel. The servants of the Duke of Buckingham and Holmes engage in a duel.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY

"Why do you stay?" she asked him at length in a dull voice. "Go... go your ways, sir, and leave me to die. It is, I think, all that remains to me. And... and I think that I shall die the easier without your company."

He stepped back as if he had struck him. He made as if to answer her, then his parted lips came together again, his chin sank until it touched his breast. He turned, and with dragging feet walked slowly out of the room, softly closing the door.

She lay there, invaded suddenly by a great fear. She strained her ears to catch the sound of his footsteps in the passage, until finally the clanging of the door leading to the street announced to her that, taking her at her word, he was gone, indeed.

And now she flung herself prone upon the daybed, and sobbed aloud with the searing pain in her breast conquered even her self-pity, and stretched her writhing in agony as if upon a rack. At last a merciful unconsciousness supervened.

And meanwhile Holmes was moving mechanically and instinctively at speech upon Sermon Lane in the direction of Paul's.

Without hat or cloak, his empty scabbard dangling like a limp tail about his legs, he sped onward, a man half-distracted, with but a vague notion of his object and none of the direction in which its fulfillment would be like. As he was approaching Carter Lane, a lantern came dancing like a will-o'-the-wisp round the corner to meet him, and presently the dark outline of the man, who carried it grew visible. This man walked with the assistance of a staff which at closer quarters the lantern's rays revealed to be red in color. With a gasp of relief, Holmes flung forward toward him.

"Keep your distance, sir! Keep your distance!" a voice warned him. But Holmes went recklessly on, unheeding of the gloom. "Ware infection," the long red wand was raised and pointed toward him to arrest his advance.

"Are you mad, sir?" the man asked sharply. Holmes could make out now the pallid outline of his face, which the broad brim of his stepladder had hitherto kept almost entirely in shadow. "I am an examiner of infected houses."

It is as I hoped," panted Holmes. "that you might be some such official. I need a doctor, man, quick, for one who is taken with the plague."

The examiner's manner became brisk at once. "Where?" he demanded. "Close at hand here, in Knight Rider Street."

"Why then, Dr. Beamish, there at the corner, is your man, come."

And thus it happened that, from the sleep which had succeeded the sound of steps and voices, where she lay she faced the door of the room. And, as she rolled before her eyes, she saw the tall figure of Colonel Holmes enter followed by two strangers. One of these was a little birdlike man of middle age; the other was young and of a broad frame and a full countenance. Both were dressed in black, and each carried the red wand which the law prescribed.

The younger man, who was the examiner met by Holmes in Sermon Lane, came no farther than the threshold. He was holding close to his nostrils a cloth that gave out a pungent, vinegary smell, and his jaws worked vigorously while, for he was chewing a stick of snakeroot as a further measure of prevention. Meanwhile, his companion, who was that came Dr. Beamish, he had recommended, approached the patient and made a swift, practiced, and silent examination.

The physician held her wrist for a moment in his bony fingers, the middle one upon her pulse. Next he carefully examined the blotch upon her throat. Finally he raised first one of her arms and then the other, while Holmes at his bidding held the candle-branch so as to cast the light into the armpit. A grunt escaped him upon the discovery of a swelling in the right one.

"This is unusually soon," he said. "It is seldom before the third day that there is such a manifestation." At his elbow Holmes spoke in a toneless voice: "Does it... does it mean that her case is beyond hope?"

The physician looked at him. "Her case need not be hopeless any more than another's. Much depends upon the energy with which the disease is fought."

He saw the flash of Holmes' eyes at that, as thru the Colonel's mind sped the row that it was a matter of a fight he was there to wage it. "Much depends upon that. But more—indeed all—upon God, my friend." He spoke to Holmes as to a husband, for that, indeed, was the relationship in which he conceived him to stand to the afflicted lady. It was a matter of a fight he was there to wage it. "Much depends upon that. But more—indeed all—upon God, my friend."

Getting Skinner Every Day

Something Must Be Done and Done Dam Quick, Too

Tens of thousands of thin, run-down men—yes, and women too—are getting discouraged—are giving up all hope of ever being able to take on flesh and look healthy and strong.

All such people can stop worrying and start to smile right now for McCo's Cod Liver Oil Tablets, which any druggist will tell you all about, is putting flesh on the bones of thin, run-down folk every day.

One woman tired, weak and discouraged, put on 15 pounds in five weeks and feels fine.

We all know that Cod Liver Oil is full of flesh producing vitamins, but many people can't take it because of its horrible smell and fishy taste, and because it often upsets the stomach.

THE TANGLE

An Intimate Story of Innocent Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

A LETTER FROM LESLIE PRES-COTT TO RUTH ELLINGTON

DEAR GIRL:

You can't imagine how glad I was to get your letter, perhaps most because it told me that you and Jack were friends again. Jack also wrote me to that effect, and he also explained how and why he took Sally Atherton to dinner.

Dear old Jack! He has no more idea of the conventions than any other man. I expect the whole town was agog with the fact that while I was gone he took his secretary out to dinner, no one for a moment remembering that if there was anything at all between Jack and Sally the last thing either of them would do would be to dine together in as conspicuous a place as the most popular lunch room in town.

I wonder why this dinner business between a male employer and a female employee makes such a stir. Why is it such a sweet morsel for the gossip to roll under their tongue? I am quite sure if I was a man of business there would be many times that I would want my secretary to dine with me, whether that secretary was male or female.

In my own case, of course, Sally is my friend, and I would not want anyone to say anything unkind about her. Head it off, won't you, Ruth, if anyone should speak to you about it?

You are positively uncanny, dear girl, about things. I have just had a letter from Karl Whitney, in which he has announced his engagement to Alice. I never realized before, Ruth, that that sister of mine was so clever. I am certain now that she intended to marry Karl from the moment she knew I had refused him.

Isn't it strange that sometimes we are not as well acquainted with the members of our own families as we are with comparative strangers? I am sure I know you better than I ever knew Alice.

Karl wrote me a very nice letter about Alice. He tells me he hopes I will forgive him for being glad I jilted him for Jack. I don't think he used the word "jilt," but his meaning was identical.

I wonder if you'll think I am a kind of a dog in the manger, as it were, if I say I am sorry that Alice and Karl have fallen in love with each other. Karl and I have been too nearly lovers for me ever to look upon him as a brother. Men are different, I guess, for he very composedly signed himself, "Your loving brother, Karl," and between you and me, dear, I do not believe there is a loving, caressing word he has used when making love to Alice that he hasn't already said to me.

I wonder if all men are like that? It's a new thought. I believe I'm going to ask Jack when I get home if all the sweet things he ever said to me were only repetitions of those he had said to someone else.

I'm coming home very soon, dear. Until then, believe me to be Your loving friend, LESLIE.

BASEBALL MEN MAKE PERMANENT EIGHT CLUB CIRCUIT

FATE'S BLOW AGAINST REDS LUCKY FOR GIANTS

(BY HENRY L. CARRELL)

NEW YORK — (United Press) — Fate's blow against the Cincinnati Reds in the death of Pat Moran and some good luck on their part in finding a couple of fine young pitchers, have placed the New York Giants back in a dominating position in the National League.

It is impossible to tell now what effect the loss of a great leader will have on the Reds and it is just as uncertain what Dean, Maun and Bradshaw will do when they have to pitch to enemy batters.

Moran's death will mean the loss of the pennant to the Reds. The loss of their late manager was not due to any system of management, but to individual genius and it will be impossible for anyone to step right into his shoes.

It might be that the death of Moran will give the Reds even stronger together and that they might be inspired by desperation to go out and play better than they might have under normal conditions.

With the best pitching staff in the league, the Reds would have been picked as the favorite for the pennant by many critics if they had not lost their leader. Perhaps the veteran pitchers will work just as well for another manager, but the young pitchers cannot because there is no other man in the game quite so successful as Moran was in handling and developing pitchers. When John McGraw took twenty pitchers to the training camp he said he ought to find at least one good one because he had bought nearly all the good ones in flight. Reports from the training camp indicate that he has found three youngsters who will be carried with the team—Wayland Dean, Ernie Maun and Joe Bradshaw.

REDS MANAGER TO BE CHOSEN

The question of the settlement of a new manager for the Reds will be settled within the next 24 hours, following the arrival at Orlando, Fla., of President August Horwath and Lou Wingo, a director of the Cincinnati club. Jake Daubert and Jack Hendricks are favored to take Pat Moran's place. The Reds will get down to serious business Wednesday, resting Tuesday when Moran will be buried at Pittsburgh, Mass.

COMBS COMES TO AGREEMENT

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Earl R. Combs has come to an agreement with the New York Yankees and will leave his home in Richmond, Ky., tomorrow for the training camp at New Orleans. This announcement was made by William Neal, business manager of the Louisville American Association club, who is at Dawson Springs with the Louisville Herald today. Combs was sold to the world champions last winter by the Louisville club for a price estimated at upward of $50,000. Combs demanded part of the purchase price and had been holding out for it.

FLOYD RETURNS TO TURF

CLEVELAND.—(Associated Press) — C. J. Floyd will return to the harness turf this spring. He was well known several years ago when he drove W. A. 2:04 1/2, and Omar, 2:05 1/2, on the Grand Circuit. Floyd at present has three horses owned by D. E. McNichols and Sons, East Liverpool, in his stable, among them being Just David, with a trotting record of 2:04 1/2, but since last fall trained on the pace. Others are Laura Forbes, 2:05 1/4, and Fatima, 2:13 1/4. They are pacers.

IS BASERUNNING COMING BACK?

Is base running due for a revival in the major leagues? Is the take-every-chance-possible system on the bases to vie with thrill of the home run? This question is raised by the signing of Armando Marsans, former big leaguer, by Manager John McGraw of the Giants. Marsans, who has played engagements in both the American and National Leagues, is thru as a regular. McGraw intends to use him as a base-running coach.

In his days as a big league star Marsans was noted for his great speed and ability to run the bases. He was an artist when it came to hitting the dirt.

For several years the art of baserunning has been a much neglected feature in the southern training camps. It would seem McGraw intended to make a radical departure.

McGraw has announced that every member of the Giants' squad will be compelled to go thru a course of sprints to increase his efficiency on the bases.

Once upon a time McGraw, who was a wonder at hitting the dirt, took charge of the sliding pit in the southern camp. Those days are of course over. Marsans is to be his successor as professor of run and slide.

Frankie Frisch, one of the greatest ball players the game has ever produced, is certain to profit thru the signing of Marsans. Possibly McGraw had that thought in mind.

Frisch is unquestionably the fastest man in baseball today, unless Archbishop of the Chicago White Sox can outfoot him.

If Frisch has a single weakness it is in sliding. Often he resorts to the head-first slide, which is a very dangerous practice.

Frisch with a fall-away slide, such as Cobb used when at the height of his career, plus his great speed, would make a fleeting target that infielders would find most difficult to touch.

No doubt McGraw desires Frisch to get away from the head-first slide entirely. For so wonderful and valuable a player to slide that way is foolhardy.

Marsans is sure to be of great aid to McGraw in the baserunning feature of play.

Well do I recall a freak bit of baserunning by Marsans that ended a wildly exciting game to Cuba with a near riot.

Detroit was playing the Almendares of Cuba at Havana. It was the last half of the eleventh inning, Detroit leading, 3 to 2, two men out and Marsans on second.

Eddie Summers was pitching for Detroit. Charley O'Leary, now coach of the New York Americans, playing short.

O'Leary kept kidding Marsans, who at the time was being touted as a second Cobb on the bases about the short lead he was taking.

Summers suddenly developed a wild streak on the batter. On every ball pitched O'Leary walked in to steady him. On one of the trips he got the ball and hid it.

Walking back to short he informed Marsans if he was as fast as Cobb he would take a bigger lead by 10 feet, and made a mark where Cobb usually stood on such a play.

Marsans immediately proceeded to that point, whereupon O'Leary pounced upon him, touched him with the ball, and I declared him out, ending the game.

Marsans, wildly excited that he had been tricked, dashed madly back to second, sliding into the bag.

Five minutes later when we left the park he was still on second surrounded by a crowd of Cuban fans explaining how it happened.

In Squared Circle

NEW YORK — (By United Press) — Benny Volzen, New York lightweight, won a non-contest decision from Bud Christiano, Buffalo, Babe Herman, California, featherweight, won a ten-round decision from Tommy Noble, England.

NEW YORK — Returned to his hotel quarters from the Policlinic Hospital, Jack Dempsey will remain for several days under the attention of his doctor. He has practically recovered from the operation.

ALBANY, N. Y. — Investigation by a legislative committee into the boxing situation is considered unlikely in New York now. It is thought by political leaders here that the various bills calling for investigations, repeals and remedies will die in committee.

LORAIN, Ohio — John Risko, Cleveland heavyweight, will meet Wild Bill Red, of Columbus, in the main event of a four-round amateur boxing event to be staged by the Lorain Sports Club here on March 15.

GOOD FOR TWO YEARS

Everett Scott, veteran shortstop of the New York Yankees, figures it will be two years more before any serious struggle in crowding him out of the Yankee lineup. Then he says he will be satisfied to retire.

ELLE SHOULD IMPROVE

Manager Ty Cobb of the Detroit Tigers is banking on Elmer Baseman, left fielder, to be a valuable asset this year than last. Elmer slumped badly in hitting during the 1923 campaign.

MONTGOMERY, Ala. — The Athletics have begun formal practice and Wednesday the pitchers will place the horseshoe across the plate for the benefit of the batters. Mark is preparing a long list of pitchers and it is likely that 10 or 12 of them will be on the 1924 pay roll.

ANGUSTA, Ga. — The Detroit Tigers, whom Manager Ty Cobb has run ragged for the past few days were given a breathing spell by Fred Carisch, in charge in Cobb's absence. Carisch worked the players only two hours and a half instead of the usual four.

THREE HIGHLY TOUTED ROOKIES WHO STARRED IN GIANTS' FIRST WORKOUT

SARASOTA, Fla. — Two college catchers and an experienced minor league pitching graduate featured the initial workout of the New York Giants here this week. Manager McGraw's trained observers were greatly impressed by the showing of Tom Hart, who came to the club from St. Xavier College in Cincinnati, and Pat Florence, orthopedic Georgetown University star. Both Hart and Florence are catchers. Howard Baldwin, who was bought from the Newark club of the International League at an outlay of $25,000 in cash, also made a very favorable impression. The three players are pictured above as they appeared in uniform here for the first time.

YOUTH BOWLS HIGH SCORE

CHICAGO — A 17-year-old youth, Raymond Mihn, of Kohler, Wisconsin, filled veteran bowlers in the A. B. C. classic with envy here Sunday night, as he crashed the pins for a 677 series, placing himself and his partner, Alfred Miller to second place in the doubles event with 1,283.

A previous squad, Dolan and Hill, Minneapolis, annexed first place in that class when they broke the 1300 mark for a total of 1301. Hill rolled a 680 series.

Dean and Martin, St. Louis, made a try for first with 1276, but this was only good for fourth place. Watterman and Stewart, Cincinnati, tied for seventh with 1258 and O'Donnel and Bechel, Kansas City, edged into ninth with 1246. R. Meyer, St. Louis, did the heaviest hitting in the singles, dropping the pins for 701 and fourth place.

Pros, Ams and Sich

Talk of another third major league is being revived, it being much easier to revive the talk than the league.

One of the remarkable things about yesterday was that no 16-year-old kid set a new record for a backstroke swim in an outdoor pool of Lakeview water.

The soldiers ought to agree to take their bonus out in collars. They seem likely to get it in the neck anyway.

HOW I LOST THE $10,000,000 TREASURE BY ONE PUNCH OF GOODY

"I says to her, says I, 'Say sweetie, how about it, how about it, huh?'"

"And she comes back with, 'To whom are you speaking, Sir, to whom?'"

"Well, no string of jade is going to 'To whom' me and get away with it, so I gives her a swell rear view of my manly shoulders and flat wheels, out into the cold evening breeze, leaving her cold and speechless."

"And any time you can leave 'em speechless you've done something noble, even if you didn't score."

Because she lost her lucky glove the champion woman golfer was beaten in a match on the coast. She just couldn't get her hand in, we suppose.

The new Kitty League hopes to be a big nose in the minor league movement. A regular cat's paw, as it were.

No matter what happens, the coming season will be reasonably easy to endure. Sir Thomas Lipton isn't going to build a Shamrock.

It is appropriately announced that a return fight between Gibbons and Dempsey has been clinched.

That's all the boys did in their first fight.

Now that Carter and the Egyptians have worked things out, the importance of a bandup attraction, Tex Rickard may be persuaded to take it over on a percentage basis, including movie rights.

The situation may yet work itself around to a point where Pop Giers and Exterminator will fight it out for some sort of racing supremacy.

The difference between Doc Cook and some of the punts in Washington is that the good doctor was an explorer.

NEW YORK — Earle Combs, Louisville outfielder, who has refused to sign a Yankee contract, is satisfied with the terms offered him by the club but is holding out for a part of the purchase price, according to Ed Barrow, business manager of the club.

Working Out The Kinks

NEW ORLEANS — Practically all of the regulars of the New York Yankees, with the exception of Tully Pipp and Bob Meusel had arrived at the training camp today. Ernie Ward signed a new contract. The rookies beat New Orleans 14 to 2 yesterday.

CLEARWATER, Fla. — Johnny Jones, rookie infielder, who is a holdout will be fined a day's pay for each day he is missing from the team. Owner Ebbetts announced. He now owes three days' pay. The Robins will play their first game Tuesday against the St. Louis Cards.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Frank Gibson, young catcher is now the only player missing from the Braves' training camp. Earl Smith pulled in Sunday a few hours ahead of President Christy Mathewson. There is still talk of a deal with the Cards.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. — With the score 12 to 6 against them in the last half of the ninth, the Red Sox hit a bunting rally and earned a tie against the San Antonio Bears. Rookie pitcher kept the Sox in bad.

LAKELAND, Fla. — With every member of the squad here, 53 in all, the Cleveland Indians started active training. The detail of pitchers and catchers who had been working at Hot Springs, Ark., arrived here Sunday.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Manager Killefer's Cubs lost their second tilt with the Vernon Bengals here by a score of 5 to 7. Ernie Osborn, sent in the ninth, failed to save the game.

WINTER HAVEN, Fla. — Almost a dozen new arrivals have swelled the Sox camp here today. The last 24 hours. Practice games will start this week.

ANGUSTA, Ga. — Blue laws and worse weather, kept Ty Cobb and his Tigers quiet Sunday after a week's strenuous practice. It rained so much that not even the pitchers went golfing. Pratt, Blue and Heilmann arrived from Hot Springs.

Pratt said he was fifteen pounds under his lowest weight last year. BRADENTOWN, Wis. — Branch Rickey has plenty of pitchers and infielders, but good catchers for the Cardinals are scarce. Rickey has Clemens, Mcurdy, Neibergall, Vick, Howe, Holmes and Thomaseh to draw from.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. — Tris Speaker, and 25 of his Indiana players, most of the "rookie" battery men, will arrive Sunday night at their training camp at Lakeland, Fla. Speaker declared his players in splendid shape.

NORTHERN OHIO LEAGUE IS A SUBSTANTIAL FACT

There was a "full house" at the meeting of baseball men representing the franchises of the new Northern Ohio Baseball League. The meeting was called to order by temporary president Lee Heckler, at the K. C. hall, Sunday afternoon and the meeting went into the business of a permanent organization in the most enthusiastic manner. Representatives from Celina, Bryan, New Bremen, Wapakoneta, Angola, Delphos, Ottawa and Lima were present. There was considerable discussion regarding this circuit as a permanent one and it was afterwards chosen as the best in every way from a baseball point of view. There was, however, a proviso, that if Celina did not find itself able to meet all requirements that Bellefontaine be held in reserve.

Those present and the city they represent were: C. M. Acker, Bryan; Lloyd Law, New Bremen; Harry Thomas, Bellefontaine; Bernie Halloran, Lima; A. V. Kersting, Ottawa; L. Heisman, Delphos; J. W. Somerlot, Angola; "Lefty" Houtz, Wapak; Lee Schrunck, Celina.

J. W. Somerlot, of Angola, one of the most enthusiastic members of the new organization present, has had experience with the Ohio-Indiana league, last season, and he spoke of several plans which were calculated to improve the present circuit. He also stated that his "little town" was simply wild over the national pastime and that the crowds would average over 1200 fans to each game; that they had crowds in excess of 2,000 at several games.

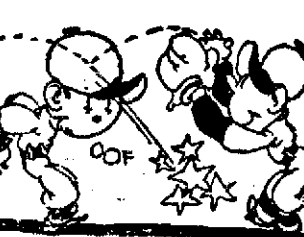

"While Angola is an Indiana town it will be found to be one of the best in the circuit," emphasized Somerlot. Pres. Heckler, after a good deal of discussion appointed a temporary board of directors, composed of Halloran, Somerlot, Houtz, Acker and Heisman, who at the next meeting, which is called for Sunday, will adopt a constitution and by-laws. These it is promised will be drawn up and mailed to each member of the league in sufficient time to be given careful consideration before this meeting. It is understood that the league, while not being directly connected with the National association, will adhere to the best principles of organized ball.

It is the desire to get at the head of the new organization some public spirited citizen, not directly connected with any particular team, who will lend influence towards the future success of the new league—one who is enthusiastic towards the great national pastime. Clem Thompson, of Lima was spoken of as the right man for the place.

THE SCHEDULE In the making of the schedule, it will be so arranged that Lima will play three out of four games at home. It is expected the complete schedule will be completed, discussed and adopted at the next meeting. Holidays however were arranged as follows: Decoration Day—Wapak Angola at Lima; Delphos at Ottawa. July—Celina at Lima; Delphos at Angola; New Bremen at Bryan; Ottawa at Wapak. Labor Day—Delphos at Lima; Celina at Wapak; New Bremen at Angola; Bryan at Ottawa.

It was an enthusiastic meeting. Every representative got into the work with the greatest interest. It was demonstrated that each member was imbued with the spirit that makes for success. The new league will begin with the full support of the public. Rooters are as plentiful as bees in buckwheat and there is every reason to believe that the Northern Ohio league will be one of the "hottest" little baseball organizations in the country.

SNAPPY SPORTS

CLEVELAND — Mount Union the unofficial champion basketball champion by winning 11 of its 14 conference games, Baldwin Wallace while not recognized as in conference, being on probation, finished second. St. Xavier finishing third claims second place according to statements of the Catholic school.

NEW YORK — Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion, left today for the west. He will stop in Chicago and then continue at St. Lake City and Los Angeles. "I hang around some place until I get some work," he said. "I'm out a job right now."

Pin Spillers Are Hitting Them Hard

CHICAGO — Nearly one hundred and fifty bowlers from Buffalo, N. Y., site of next year's meet, will roll in the American Bowling Congress singles and doubles Monday. All participated in the five men team event last night, the Pollack Caruans going into the lead one pin shy the 3,000 mark. Two Buffalo bowlers are among the leaders in the all events, Chalcraft of that city, heading the column with 1923.

DIEHARDS' GLOOM PICTURE FADES

Political Calamity Predicted Under Labor Rule Fails

NO "RED STUNTS" APPEAR

British Government Holds up so Far Under Change

(By F. M. SARK)

LONDON -- (United Press) -- Ramsay MacDonald's Labor-Socialist government has been in power for over a month now, yet the British empire has not collapsed, nor is there any indication that its foundations are seriously undermined. This, despite gloomy prognostications of political "diehards" a few months ago.

In fact the ordinary visitor would have to stay in England quite a while to determine whether the country was being governed by an old-fashioned reactionary Tory cabinet, or an allegedly advanced Liberal administration. He would certainly never suspect that England was under the control of a so-called "Red" government.

The average citizen hasn't noticed it to any great extent.

The reason is that "Macdonald's Reds" are ordinary, sane folk, whose only desire is to carry on the business of government to the best of their ability, and who promptly recognized that whatever their own views on national systems of government, the institutions and precedents of a thousand years could not be swept aside without turning the country upside down, which was far from their intentions.

The Macdonald cabinet contains as peaceful a collection of alleged "Reds" as could be found anywhere, consequently they have the support (or at least neutrality) of the great mass of British public opinion.

The organs of Lord Rothermere, newspaper "King", and nominally Conservative, for weeks painted hair-raising pictures of the appalling consequences which might be looked for on the advent of a "Red" Socialist cabinet, theoretically under the influence of the Amsterdam International, but nothing has happened. Macdonald and his colleagues have resigned from the International, and have taken over the government of Britain in almost commonplace manner.

NO STUNTS TRIED

The Labor government attempted no "stunts." There were some newspaper articles about Labor ministers being at their desks at unusually early hours, and of a stampede of government employees to reach Whitehall before 11 a. m.--the supposedly popular hour for government officials to start work--but actually there has been little change in procedure. The Labor ministers are not so early, after all, except those with arrears of work or a desire to learn their job thoroughly.

The predicted "flight of capital" from England under a "Red" government did not materialize. There was, it is true, some realization of investments by timid folk; some foreign money was sent abroad; but the movement had no support from the leaders of industry, banking and commerce, and the timid have promptly brought their money back, while even "nervous" foreign money, in returning to London.

BANKER SERVES

Reginald McKenna, former chancellor of the exchequer and leading English banker, did not hesitate to accept nomination on the "experts" committee of the reparations commission, under the auspices of a Labor government, and other bankers did not allow personal political preferences to prevent them carrying on business as usual.

It is a significant sign of the times--and a guarantee of the "sanity" of the Macdonald government--that Lord Bledisloe, great landowner and agricultural expert, has consented to support the Labor minister of agriculture in the house of lords. Bledisloe was regarded as a reactionary of the reactionaries and a stalwart champion of the "vested interests." Yet this "reactionary" decided that British agriculture and the landowning class were in no great danger under the present "Red" regime.

EUROPEAN EIGHT HOUR LAWS UNDERGO REVISION

GENEVA. Official statements issued recently by the International Labor bureau showed the tendency in various countries to revise the hours of labor. It was noted that in Belgium a bill has been introduced to amend the existing eight hour law limiting the restriction to actual hours of actual work. In Germany, it is pointed out, the eight hour day remains in principle, but provision is made for exceptions, and in some industries, notably in the Ruhr, a prolongation of hours of work is already in operation or on the point of acceptance, despite some opposition by the workers. In Denmark, the question of slightly increasing the hours of work is being discussed.

On the other hand, says the labor office, word comes from Bulgaria that the government is gradually extending the application of the eight hour law.

SOCIAL LIFE OF BANKERS KNOCKS OUT HOT ROLLS

BERLIN--Berlin hereafter must do without its hot rolls for breakfast. The local bakers have refused to work after dark on the ground that night duty interferes with their social activities. They contend also that cold rolls are just as good as hot rolls, and a whole lot more wholesome.
